Loch Ness Legend Untainted

DUNFERMLINE, Scotland (AP) — A fearsome creature fished out of Loch Ness, home of Scotland's legendary monster, turned out today to be a frozen bull elephant seal of considerably smaller size than first reported.

It was an April Fool's hoax, police reported.

After the nine-foot, 350-pound dead beast had been seized from English zoologists taking it out of Scotland, an expert summoned to Dunfermline police headquarters found nothing supernatural about it.

Michael Rushton, general curator of Edinburgh Zoo, said the animal was just a young seal found far from its normal home.

"It's just an April Fool's Day joke," said Police Supt. Inas McKay of inverness. His precinct includes Loch Ness with its never-ending unconfirmed reports of sighted monsters.

Before today's hoax was nailed, a team of English zoologists claimed they fished the creature out of Loch Ness Friday and insisted it was no joke.

Scottish police stopped them from sneaking it to their Falmingo Park Zoo in Scarborough and held the creature overnight for investion. It was locally described as 18 feet long and weighing 1½ tons.

Air Strike Plans Reported

SAIGON (AP) — The United States is preparing massive air strikes inside North Vietnam in retaliation for an enemy offensive across the demilitarized zone, informed sources said tonight.

They reported that U.S. planes are awaiting clearing weather for the go-ahead.

The sources said American air support to the South Vietnamese has been limited by heavy cloud cover.

Targets inside North Vietnamese territory that are said to be ticketed for attack are long-range artillery guns that have been pounding South Vietnamese bases, supply depots, surface-to-air missile sites and any other gun positions.

Sources added that U.S. plans depend to a great degree on what North Vietnam does and whether it continues its offensive.

Two Escapees Captured

FARMINGTON, Mo. (AP) — Two escapees from the Missouri Training School for Boys at Boonville were captured Friday. One exchanged gunfire with police briefly.

One youth escaped from MTS Feb. 20, the other March 3. Both are from St. Louis.

The highway patrol said the pair abandoned a stolen car in Perryville late Thursday and stole two others.

Highway patrolmen caught one of them on Interstate 55 in Ste. Genevieve County Friday without resistance.

The other youth was captured in Farmington after a short gun battle. One of the cars stolen in Perryville was found in Farmington.

25 Cars Damaged In Slide

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The collapse of a limestone cliff onto Interstate 435 about one mile south of the Interstate 70 interchange Friday night dumped tons of rock on two northbound lanes and caused damage to about 25 cars that could not stop in time to avoid hitting the rocks or each other.

The highway patrol found about 20 cars stopped on the roadway among slabs of rock, some which were door-size and two feet thick.

No serious injuries were reported, although one youth identified as Donald A. Page, 17, was taken to Lakeside Hospital in Independence for treatment of a possible concussion.

Four cars collided a little later at the site when they swerved into the inside lane, which was free of rocks. No injuries and only minor damage was reported.

Northbound and southbound traffic was backed up for a quarter-mile about 30 minutes. Highway department graders were called in to clear the roadway.

Demilitarized Zone Crossed

Bloody Vietnam Battle

SAIGON (AP) —Thousands of North Vietnamese troops, crossing the demilitarized zone, engaged the retreating South Vietnamese today in the bloodiest fighting since the 1968 TET offensive, the Saigon commander in the north reported.

In what appeared to be a bid to seize all of the northernmost province of Quang Tri, the North Vietnamese drove the South Vietnamese from their 10th base in three days. The enemy pushed to within five miles of Quang Tri, the provincial capital. Six main government bases still held out along the defense line.

Lt. Gen. Hoang Xuan Lam, commander in the north, estimated 30,000 North Vietnamese had crossed into Quang Tri Province. Despite reverses, he claimed thousands of North Vietnamese had been killed.

Lam, after touring the northern quarter, said three North Vietnamese divisions, three artillery regiments, and antiaircraft units armed with surfaceto-air missiles had crossed the demilitarized zone into Quang Tri Province.

He left no doubt that the offensive allied officers had been predicting since late last year was under way. He reported South Vietnamese infantry, marine and armored-cavalry units were engaged in several bloody battles.

Lam did not identify the enemy units. His brief statement was released by the Saigon military command. A North Vietnamese division numbers about 10,000 men at full strength.

However, only hours earlier, U.S. intelligence estimates were more conservative. U.S. sources said they had reports of only two North Vietnamese divisions in the northern sector, the 304th and the 324B. A third division, the 308th, was said to be still north of the DMZ.

There have been no U.S. reports of surface-to-air missiles being moved into Quang Tri Province, although some close to the DMZ have fired at American planes.

Car Kills Fisk Girl

Donna Cunningham, 15, of Fisk was struck and killed by a car Friday as she walked across a street in Fisk, the Associated Press reported.

The highway patrol said the girl died in a Poplar Bluff hospital about four hours after the accident. The accident occurred before the weekend count of traffic deaths began.

The patrol said Roger Lee Lawrence, 22, of rural Fisk, the driver of the car was arrested shortly after the accident and charged with leaving the scene of an accident and having no valid vehicle registration.

He is being held in Butler County jail in Poplar Bluff pending filing of manslaughter charges, the patrol said.

Fisk is 12 miles east of Poplar Bluff.

The patrol reported a one car accident at 11 a.m. yesterday two and one half miles west of Charleston of I-57. According to the patrol, a car driven by Pamula Fadler, 26, of Flat River had a tire blow out and the car overturned in the meridan. Miss Fadler was taken to Missouri Delta Community hospital with minor injuries and released.

Tires Stolen

Two automobile tires were reported stolen yesterday.

John Enson, 861 Stanford Dr., told police that he had the two tires stored in his carport. He did not know when they disappeared, he said. The tires were valued at $50.

Consumer Savings Sought

Meany Asks Price Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prices charged by firms whose labor contracts have been cut by the Pay Board should be reduced, AFL-CIO President George Meany has told the Price Commission.

When a firm's labor costs have been cut by a Pay Boardaltered contract,the savings should be passed on to consumers, Meany said in a letter Friday to commission Chairman C. Jackson Grayson.

The letter came in response to a suggestion of Grayson's that Meany pass along any sentiments he had on improving controls.

In his letter, Meany said the AFL-CIO has offered numerous suggestions to the Price Comission, but they have been ignored.

Sen. William Proxmire, meanwhile, said he will ask Meany to justify his walkout from the Pay Board when he appears at hearings called by Proxmire's Joint Economic Committee. Hearings begin April 14.

The Cost of Living Council said Friday it has lifted price controls from international airlines' rates, clearing the way for fare hikes of up to 12.8 per cent beginning today.

The action came one day after the Civil Aeronautics Board approved a new international fare structure, permitting the fare hikes.

Also Friday, some major food chains cut their meat prices and others said they would not raise them for at least 30 days.

The action came after Secretary of the Treasury John Connally talked earlier in the week with representatives of the 12 largest food chains about high food prices.

Easter Pilgrims Jam Church At Jerusalem

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Easter pilgrims jammed Jerusalem's most hallowed church at dawn today for services of the blessing of the new fire before the tomb of Christ.

Jerusalem Patriarch James Joseph Beltritti led the sunrise service in the ancient Church of the Holy Sepulchre, built over the accepted site where Christ was buried. The new fire blessing symbolizes Christ's resurrection.

In other parts of the world,Christians joined in elaborate religious services, visited families, remembered their dead, went on holidays and created huge traffic jams.

More than 20,000 pilgrims and tourists were in the Holy City of Jerusalem for Easter and the Jewish Passover festival. The western Easter week there ends at dawn Sunday and the eastern Holy Week begins.

In Rome,Pope Paul VI will lead the world's Roman Catholics into the celebration with an Easter vigil Mass tonight in St. Peter's Basilica.

Sunday, the Pope will deliver his major Easter address to an expected 250,000 people in St. Peter's Square.

The Irish Republican Army and its political wing, Sinn Fein, scheduled 73 parades throughout the Republic of Ireland Sunday to commemorate the deaths of IRA men in the 1916 Easter Rebellion which ended in Ireland's partition.

President Eammon de Valera, 89, the only survivor of the 1916 leaders, will take the salute at an official procession in Dublin at the post office where the rising began.

West Berliners crossed the wall by the tens of thousands to spend Easter with families and friends in East Berlin and East Germany. About 500,000 people are expected to cross the border before the end of the oneweek pass periodgranted by Communist authorities. It is the first time in six years West Berliners have been allowed to visit East Berlin and the first time in 20 years they have gone into the East German countryside.

In Britain, the Archbishop of Canterbury and Cardinal Heenan, Roman Catholic primate, led appeals for peace in Northern Ireland during weekend church services.

Man Released In Shooting Incident

NEW MADRID — Bill Bradshaw, 49, of Morehouse, who was being held by New Madrid County sheriff's department in the investigation of yesterday's shooting of Roy Hailey has been released, according to deputy Walter Ivy.

Ivy said no charges have been filed in the investigation which is still continuing.

Hailey, a Morehouse tavern operator, was shot in the face, chest, shoulder, and arm by a 12-gauge shotgun at the Wayside Gin Company in Morehouse yesterday morning. He is described by doctors at Veteran's Hospital in Poplar Bluff as being in satisfactory condition today.

The highway patrol reported that both men apparently had been drinking and during an argument decided to shoot it out.

Hailey told the patrol when he arrived at the gin company he was met by a group of people, none of whom he recognized except Bradshaw.

He said he tried to talk to Bradshaw but someone fired a shot before he could. Hailey admitted firing a shot.

Government Against Over-Withholding

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government economists say they are concerned because taxpayers are letting too much money be withheld from their paychecks. They fear the overwithholding will retard the nation's economic recovery.

New income tax withholding schedules that went into effect Jan. 16 are taking more money out of paychecks than before, and people are not adjusting their withholding exemptions to reduce the amount of money withheld.

The Treasury Department said Friday it is collecting about $1 billion a month more than it anticipated in January. This factor, by itself, could reduce the current fiscal year deficit by about $5 billion.

In January, the Nixon administration estimated the government would end up $38.8 billion in the red at the end of the current fiscal year,Jan. 30.

But officials said Friday the budget deficit will run much lower than that.

Although the Office of Management and Budget has yet to come up with a new estimate, it now appears the deficit may prove to be $6 billion to $8 billion less than the January estimate.

President Nixon's budget could prove to be pretty close to balanced on a full-employment basis if the money keeps coming into the Treasury at the increased rate.

A full-employment budget puts expenditures at the level of revenues that would be produced if the economy were operating at high prosperity, which it isn't.

When Nixon disclosed the expected deficit in January, he said the budget would be in the red by about $8 billion on a fullemployment basis.

'THE WEEK THAT CHANGED THE WORLD'

As President Nixon's visit to Communist China adjusts into the perspective of time, it becomes ever clearer that the President threw the weight of the United States to the Peking Government in its smoldering conflict with the Soviet Union. Thereby the balance of power in the world was changed. China was reopened to general trade with the United States and concomitantly with other Western countries that were doing little or no trading with the Communist regime. This was accomplished at the expense of the people of China, who have now been notified that they cannot look to the United States for any kind of help in any effort to overthrow their oppressors. This is raw, old-fashioned, power politics of an old European stripe.

The Russians watched in sardonic bitterness the showy appeasement of the Chinese Communists by President Nixon. They realized that the marathon accommodation of the U.S.S.R. by the United States had been abruptly changed. Whatever Mr. Nixon might bring to Moxcow in May, he could never undo the alteration that he had wrought in the status of the Peking government. All the while the expanding Soviets have been seizing positions in Cuba, pushing a large naval force into the Mediterranean and other seas, arming Egypt, Lebanon and Syria, instigating trouble for the U. S. in the Panama Canal, and occupying Czechoslovakia, as if Red China did not exist at all. The Soviet ploy had been completely disregarded with a "So what?" by Mr. Nixon.

The Soviet Russian position is that all nations on the Soviet borders are threats to the Soviet Union. Hence all the countries bordering on Russia on the west have been neutralized (Finland), annexed (Esthonia, Latvia, Lithuania and parts of Germany, Hungary and Rumania), or dragooned into obedient satrapies (Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria), as Yugoslavia is eyed and sized up for future "liberation." During all this period of Soviet Russian expansion since World War II, the United States has followed a policy that was not expressed or codified until put into words by Walt Whitman Rostow while he was the national security officer of President Johnson, thus:

"Rising tensions or the pleas of our allies or of the American public must be ignored in any crisis with Russia. The temptation must be avoided to prolong or expand any crisis in an effort to degrade or embarrass the Soviets in the eyes of the world." (P. 549, The United States in the World Arena)

President Nixon's move in Red China has embarrassed the Soviets "in the eyes of the world." But the President is going to Moscow, as, up to this moment, the Russians put the best face on the situation that they can. The world is not a less safe place since the issuance of the Nixon-Chou communique. It is in a more vigorous state of flux than ever.

Driving a wedge between Red China and Russia always did seem to be a good thing to do for the safety of the rest of the world. But was it necessary to bestow a general blessing on the leaders of one of the world's cruelest regimes in pursuit of American foreign policy? And will this fearful mistake be repeated in Moscow?

THE LILY AND THE PALM

The most popular flower of Easter is the lily. Its witness is a sign of joy and light, and symbolizes purity. The white lily is sacred to the Virgin. "Madonna lilies" burst into bloom on Easter dawn.

Tradition says that during the flight into Egypt, the mother of Jesus commanded the palm to bend its leaves above the Holy Babe to shade him. At another time the infant Jesus ordered the palm to bend, so the Virgin could gather fruit. Because it willingly obeyed his command, he blessed it and chose it as a symbol of salvation for the dying, promising when he entered Jerusalem in triumph, it should be with a palm in his hand.

In memory of that day, Palm Sunday is celebrated.

APRIL'S COMING IN

April's coming in with promise, as it should. March was only yesterday, but it was another season. So much for calculating astronomers. Growing things have a cadence of their own, more moody than that of the spheres on their appointed courses in the distant firmament. Yet for city men, too, spring may seem merely a time-point marked by clock and calendar. As Gerard Manely Hopkins wrote: "All is seared with trade; bleared, smeared with toil: And wears man's smudge and shares man's smell."

Which city man goes on pilgrimage with Chaucer, banters and frolics with Shakespeare, or hears John Burrough's drummer boys of April, the little frogs? Who believes with Wordsworth that "one moment now may give us more Than years of toiling reason," or cares about T. S. Eliot's complaint that 'April is the cruelest month"? Aren't they all cruel?

Despite its pollution, however, the April sky will turn a pellucid blue, the sun will brighten, buds will burst and birds will sing even in city trees. And if only faintly, city men will feel what Solomon felt when he sang: "For, lo, the winter is past ... and the voice of the turtle is heard in the land." Hope will burgeon and the urban mood will change just as Hopkins' mood changed, caushing him to sing:

What is all this juice and joy?
Astrain of the earth's sweet being in the beginning ...
Nothing is so beautiful as spring.

HOSTAGE BANK ROBBER GROWING U. S. MENACE

Along with the plane hijacker, a growing menace on the U. S. scene is the hostage bank robbery.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, called attention to this fact in a message to the nation's law enforcement officials in the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin for March. He also cited an increase in bank robberies.

Here, in part, is what he said:

On an average of nine times each day during 1971, bank robbers and thieves victimized banking institutions in violation of the Federal Bank Robbery and Incidental Crimes Statute. These 3,285 assaults -- robberies, burglaries, and larcenies -- represented an 8.5 per cent increase over the 1970 figures. There were 2,586 bank robberies in 1971, 255 more than the previous year and an increase of 10.9 per cent.

More and more banking institutions are using security devices, such as cameras, and bank robbers are aware of this. Consequently, more and more robbers resort to techniques to circumvent these technical safeguards.

One of their most dangerous ploys is the seizing of hostages to force bank officials to open bank vaults while the facilities are closed and give the money to them, thus minimixing exposure to security devices. The terror and danger connected with these tactics defy description.

Recently, a bank robber-fugitive was slain in an early-morning gun battle with FBI agents outside a motel room in which he was holding the president of a local bank and three members of his family as hostages. The victims were rescued unharmed. The gunman had planned to force the official to open the bank vault prior to the start of business that day. He was also being sought for bank robbery in another state in which he had held a bank official and two members of his family as hostages and escaped with $24,000.

In another case, one of three gunmen held 13 members of a bank manager's family as hostages while the other two robbers forced the official to drive to the bank and open the vault. The trio, later arrested, escaped with $405,000.

Obviously, the hostage bank robbery is more than a crime against property; it is a growing menace to banking officials and their families. The specter of the armed criminal follows the banking official to his office and back.

The hostage bank robbery is not a condition that an open, free soviety can live with. This dangerous crime merits the grave concern of every banking institution, law enforcement agency, and community in the nation. A campaign of continuous, coordinated effort is needed to make the odds against success so great the hostage bank robberies will cease.

Spring brings Easter and the wonderful, joyous feeling of a new beginning — a rebirth of spirit and energy.

Nature is the embodiment of this rebirth and the older a person becomes, the more joy there is in watching the world come back to life.

This year our national spirit, too, needs revitalization. Young and old, easterners and westerners, workers and management in this melting pot of ethnic and political backgrounds that is America, all share the same goals of peace and prosperity for all.

Just as spring is a time for Nature's growth, so our economy must grow and become more productive to compete in world markets. Successful resolutions of past differences have made us strong. There is great hope for the future.

"The survival of Mankind may rest with the future role of females -- not as mothers, but as heads of states," states the Insurance Advocate. "The masculine virtues of aggression and competition reflecting present cultural and political values enhance violence and, in nationalistic terms, war. But such male machismo traits are becoming less and less adaptive to survival, a University of Colorado scientist suggests. Government by less-aggressive women might actually prove to be a superior adaption in evolutionary terms, he feels ... the 'less - aggressive' female thesis can be tested right now -- just attend any post - Christmas bargain sale!"

REDISCOVERING AMERICA

While scientists study the moon rocks and other experts in economic, social and political fields debate the merit of space exploration, a prominent newspaper publisher who attended the State Dinner In Los Angeles for the astronauts writes of how lately the ranks of U. S. citizens have been torn by strife, lack of patriotic sentiment and a downgrading of national purpose. He believes the moon flight provided something that was "...fine, constructive, and unifying in American life..." He believes that possibly our place as a constructive world leader has been regained.

In commenting on the Los Angeles banquet, he stresses the sober realization of those present that the three young men who landed on the moon may have rendered a greater service to our country and to the world than can be comprehended at the present time. He asks: "Did the men who walked on the moon help us also to rediscover America?"

"Tell me," he said, "how fast would you say this plane was going?" The other fellow answered, "About 300 miles per hour."

"In that case," said Mr. Wrigley, "why don't they just throw out the motors and let the plane continue on its own momentum?"

MARXISTS, AND FRIENDS NEVER LEARN

So many examples of basic failures of Marxist policies abound that it looks like communists and socialists eventually would learn that their system cannot deliver the goods. The latest example is the abject failure of communism in Cuba: the world's greatest producer of cane sugar this year will have its worst harvest in six years.

Despite aid from Moscow of more than $1 million a day, the Cuban economy is in shambles. Castro's subjects, who once enjoyed massive sugar surpluses, are having their personal sugar ration cut from six pounds a month to four pounds. Still there won't be enough sugar to meet foreign exchange needs.

The people who once had the highest standard of living of any Latin America nation now live in grinding poverty, not a few poor people, but everybody -- except the few in the communist elite who boss everything in Cuba. If the people of Formosa or South Korea or Greece or Spain or any other anti-communist nation had to have their previous chief crop rationed, we would hear a great deal about if from the national TV networks.

Castro has drafted civilian and military workers and forced them to work in the fields, along with some volunteer revolutionaries from U.S. communist groups, but continues to suffer disasters in every economic activity. Freedom enthusiasts can point to a long line of failures by nations which have abandoned personal enterprise and the profit-motive system.

Argentina once was the leading beef-eating country in the world. Peron adopted a socialist-like system to "build" the economy and Argentina never has recovered, periodically being forced to ration beef even today. Russia and China both have been forced to buy wheat to fight communist-caused famines, despite being the two largest land area nations in the world. Marxists and their friends never learn. HLH

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON -- The Agriculture Department's own Inspector General has accused it in a harsh, suppressed memorandum, of flagrantly violating federal laws against pollution of the environment.

Interior Department conservation are secretly drafting a similar memo, echoing the charges, despite White House efforts to soften the confrontation.

The twin attacks show how the Agriculture Department has changed through the years. In 1935, after the nation's worst dust storm, it was Agriculture which resolutely fought erosion, guarded forests, planted hedgerows and evangelized for contour farming.

Now, almost four decades later, Agriculture officials bow to the environment- -be -damned whims of Rep. Jamie Whitten, D-Miss., the House Agriculture Appropriations chairman.

Whitten's coterie includes the land developers, farm barons and suburban contractors. Inside the Agriculture Department, their interests come ahead of the nation's checkerboard of small farms and deep woodlands.

Like other federal agencies, however, Agriculture comes under the 1969 Environmental Policy Act. And, last October, the Department's Inspector General, an old Kennedy-era crimebuster named Nathaniel Kossack, began putting together a report on Agriculture 's noncompliance with the Act.

On December 9, Kossack's signed report was privately delivered to Agriculture Assistant for Science and Education, Dr. T. C. Byerly. He quickly exempted it from public disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

Small wonder Byerly suppressed it. These are its findings:

SECRET FINDINGS

"There were no organized procedures at the Department level to assure that environmental statements" required by the Act "were prepared..."

Even those that were prepared sometimes were "made to justify proposed actions" rather than to protect the streams and air near Agriculture projects.

The Agriculture secretary's aides had been told to evaluate how the department's anti-polution fight was proceeding, but this "has not been done and is not considered to be of top priority.

There was a fumbling, bumbling, buck-passing attitude on pollution throughout Agriculture and, in some divisions, an active reluctance "to invite participation" by the department's anti-polluters.

While these charges are being digested within Agriculture, the Interior Department's Sport Fisheries and Wildlife Bureau is drawing up an equally strong indictment of Agriculture. We have also obtained a copy of its confidential draft report.

With refreshing candor, the draft admits there is "contention between the two Departments" over the environment. Specifically, the issue is Agriculture's hopes of "channelizing" up to 150,000 miles of the nation's streams.

"Channelizing" means to bulldoze twisting streams into straight muddy ditches. This technique, promoted by Congressman Whitten, speeds rain run-off and, in theory, prevents flooding. It also ruins the fishing, destroys the scenery, drys up the swamplands where birds and small animals breed, and can make neighboring forests die of thirst.

LAND BARONS

The main beneficiaries are not the small farmers, but the great land barons who have land by the streams. "Channelizing" makes more dry, flood-free land available, and the owners can then peddle it to land developers who bring in the builders.

The Sport Fisheries and Wildlife Bureau says that Agriculture has largely ignored its advice on "channelizing" and flatly opposed it on 82 of 238 projects.

"Although the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife and the State fish and game agencies were invited and did participate" in Agriculture decision-making meetings, there is "little evidence that their views were adopted," says the memo.

Sport Fisheries and Wildlife says that even when Agriculture did file the environmental statements required under the Act, they were so full of holes that President Nixon's Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) should have "rejected (them) as not being in compliance with the law."

To soften such unbureaucratic bluntness, the White House and CEQ secretly called together Interior and Agriculture officials at a meeting last Monday. The overall purpose, of course, is to prevent the threatening confrontation from becoming public.

Both CEQ and Interior deny any intention to kill the controversial Interior memo. Said Interior: "Nobody is going to do a whitewash."

At Agriculture, Dr. Byerly said he is working to correct the conditions described by Inspector General Kossack.

Mission to Moscow: U. S. Communist Chief Flies To Brief Kremlin on Nixon

NEW YORK -- Somehow the unnoticed, unobserved and unfortunately unreported Communist Party U.S.A. is as loaded with money as Ralph Nader is with complaints.

Somehow this American Communist Party (CP) never hesitates to spend scores of thousands of dollars on a national convention, well - packed rallies and receptions, regional headquarters, theoretical publications, Marxist- Leninist schools -- and domestic and international travel.

At the moment, for example, party chief General Secretary Guss Hall, his wife Elizabeth, and several others are swinging around their new international circuit -- Moscow, Cuba, Moscow and then back to the U.S.

There is no doubt in American intelligence circles that Hall has gone to Moscow to be briefed and to be debriefed on tactics and other "matters'. involving President Nixon's visit to the Soviet Union beginning May 22.

There is no doubt that, despite the intricate Soviet intelligence systems operating in the U.S., the Communist Party U.S.S.R. general secretary Leonid Brezhnev wants Hall's personal views on Middletown America. Hall comes from the Warren-Youngstown steel area. He was a founder and onetime field representative of the United Steeelworkers. He has never lost touch. He still whips around the country speaking, denouncing, needling, and always seeking sources for recruiting -- especially young folks and black workers these days.

It is significant to note here that the American Communist Party is rife with anti- Jewish ("chauvinist") vituperation and overt anti- Israel propaganda. Meanwhile, back at the Kremlin, it is presumed in authentically informed circles here, Hall will be quizzed on Prisident Nixon's chances for reelection, the reaction to his visit to Peking and the probable winner of the packed Democratic primary races.

Gus Hall knows Main Street America. Since he is virtually a Soviet agent here, figuratively speaking, his every move is considered an obvious clue to Russian policy. Therefore, there is significance in the American party's efforts to link itself with the Black Panthers, concentrate on black districts and in the naming of California communist Angela Davis to the party's new 60-member central committee. No U.S. CP Command Decision Political Bureau (politburo) has yet been named -- and won't be until the membership of this tough top control unit is approved in Moscow and Hall returns late in April. There is significance, too, in his swing around the huge circle from New York to Moscow to Cuba, back to Moscow and then to national party headquarters here.

In Moscow, Hall will be able to report that he has been successful in recruiting young people -- more than half of the 275 delegates to the party's 20th convention at the Towers Hotel here were well under 30. Also, there were considerably influential black delegates, such as Charlene Mitchell, secretary of the party's Black Liberation Commission.

There also is a Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL). No one, of course, knows just what Hall's instructions will be. American intelligence doesn't bug the Kremlin, much as they dream of it. But Hall will tell his Soviet superiors and comrades that he has a lively American party – worth its weight in gold rubles as a source of recruitment for key assignments anywhere in the land. At this moment Hall has flying squads working across the country from Hawaii and Alaska right down to the deep Southeast.

These teams go into poor and black neighborhoods with petitions -- sign here, this is how to fight the rich, the imperialists, and capitalism itself. In Pennsylvania the party filed 40,523 signatures on its Gus Hall- Jarvis Tyner (chairman of the YWLL) presidential nominating petitions. In Ohio the party got some 9,000 signatures. In Kentucky, 1,453. Though there is some doubt about the authenticity of signatures filed in Alabama, there were some 6,300. Teams are operating in auto and steel areas as well as across the states of Hawaii, Alaska, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Illinois and Tennessee.

This takes lots of cash. But the money is there -- for a party structure, new membership cards, regional councils, baby- sitters and cocktail receptions, paid officials, 15,000 members, several schools, a daily publication, several leagues, and travel, lots of travel.

Obviously the Soviets consider it a profitable investment. Not enough to make a revolution. But enough to make trouble – lots of it obviously.

Reunion Planned For Transplanted Church

FULTON, Mo. (AP) — A famous Christopher Wren church that has been burned, bombed, restored, rehallowed and moved across an ocean and continent will finally be united with its denomination Easter Sunday.

Anglican Holy Eucharist services, as celebrated by the American Episcopal Church, will be held in St. Mary Aldermandbury Church for the first time since a German firebomb left only its walls standing during Christmas of 1940.

The Rev. Wayne Johnson is to conduct the first Feast of Easter services in the church that was shipped stone by stone from London to serve as a memorial to Sir Winston Churchill on the campus of Westminster College here where he made his renowned "Iron Curtin" speech March 5, 1946.

The services will be held 300 years to the day that Wren began construction of the original St. Mary parish in London.

The Easter services have been made possible through an agreement with Westminister College, custodians of St. Mary, Aldermandbury. The Diocese of London gave the college 3'64. Before Sunday's communion, only nondenominational services were held.

The local Episcopal mission has no building of its own and requested that it be permitted to use the church for Easter services.

The church has been without an Episcopal congregation the last 22 years of its 300-year history, even though it was rehallowed an Episcopal Church in this country three years ago by the Bishop of Dover.

The St. Albans mission is under the Diocese of Missouri, headed by Bishop George L. Cadigan of St. Louis.

Former congregations of St. Mary Aldermandbury, have traditionally maintained their church despite major disasters. They left it only after it became financially impossible to repair.

The great fire of London in 1670 destroyed the original church, which dated back to about 1100.

The architect Wren submitted plans the next year for rebuilding the church on its original foundation. Construction began Easter Sunday, 1672, and it was completed in three years.

But 240 years later, on the night of Sept. 8, 1915, during World War I, a German fire bomb again damaged the church. Then the final blow 25 years later when a German incendiary bomb crashed into the church four days after Christmas. Only the stone walls and 12 interior columns were left standing.

Those ruins were cleaned and shipped to Westminister College in the spring of 1966 as the basis of a tribute to Sir Winston.

Chaplain Acquitted Of Adultery Charges

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) -- Cmdr. Andrew F. Jensen, the first Navy chaplain ever tried by general court- martial, has been acquitted of charges of misconduct by adultery with two women.

The women, wives of Navy officers, testified during the two- week trial that they had sexual intercourse with Jensen on 21 occasions.

Jensen, a 43- year- old father of two, took the stand to deny the allegations on every count.

The charges brought by Mary Ann Curran, 24, and Lora Gudbranson, 38, could have ended Jensen's 16- year Navy career.

However, his denomination, the American Baptist Convention, and his wife stood squarely by him since the charge was brought Aug. 11, 1971. Kathleen Jensen, 43, testified on her husband's behalf, as did several fellow chaplains and officers.

The American Baptists protested the Navy's action and withheld assigning any more ministers to Navy duty while Jensen remained accused.

Spokesmen for the denomination could not be reached immediately for comment on the verdict.

When the verdict was announced Friday, Mrs. Jensen reached across a rope separating participants and spectators in the courtroom. She hugged her husband and exclaimed, "Thank the Lord!"

She quoted Romans 8:28: "All things work together for good for those who love the Lord."

R1 ENLARGED SCHOOL DISTRICT

I am a candidate for re-election to YOUR Board and there is organized opposition against me.

Next Tuesday we will have the opportunity to witness once again the mechanics of a political organization attempting to elect one candidate or the other - and this time, believe it or not, it's in a school election. We think this is where the error lies. We think that this is a stampede over the cliff on an issue that is not in their province. Nevertheless, they're cranking up the same old machinery again to go at in your school election.

And so my chief opposition in my bid for re-election is not from the candidates themselves, but from this source, and not for reasons connected with schools, but because I have dared to differ on other matters, specifically on matters of city government in my home city where I am Mayor (but that's another story).

In the belief that it is still the people's government, it was my decision to run for this office in spite of such opposition. Is it the people's school system, or does it belong to a scattered few?

Only you can answer that, and you can do it only by extra effort. I'm asking you to take on a dedication to keep politics out of your schools, a dedication to do all you can in this one.

It is not I, Paul E. Mahar, who is on the line in this one; it is you; it is simply my name on the ballot for you.

During this Easter season, I am reminded of the prayer of the Greatest of all Teachers about allowing this cup to pass. And I too, wish this lesser one had not fallen to me - but I have picked up the gauntlet in your name, and with your support, we shall shred a paper tiger.

Many Wisconsin Voters Undecided

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Polls show between 20 and 30 per cent of Wisconsin voters still undecided on how to cast their ballots in Tuesday's presidential primary. It's easy to see why they may be confused.

There are 12 candidates on the Democratic ballot, one more than in Florida. The added starter is Rep. Patsy Mink of Hawaii, who is listed in Wisconsin because she is running for president in the Oregon primary.

—There is also a Republican primary. President Nixon is opposed on the ballot by Reps. John Ashbrook of Ohio and Paul N. McCloskey of California. Voters can vote in either primary, and some Republicans are encouraging crossovers to vote for Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama,to embarrass the Democrats.

—Former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, who won the 1968 Wisconsin Democratic primary, started his campaign here by urging a vote for someone else, either Rep. Shirley Chisholm or Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York.

—Mrs. Chisholm's campaign coordinator said he had switched to McGovern, and Mrs. Chisholm is spending the weekend before the primary on holiday in the Virgin Islands.

—Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine started out as the frontrunner here.

Minnesota, Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota and Wallace.

—McGovern has been quietly building here for a year. Now, everyone has discovered he has a strong organization. McGovern has been saying for months he would finish at least a strong second and predicting Humphrey might knock Muskie out of the race in the early primaries.

—Organized labor said it would mount a major drive if a poll showed strength for Wallace. The poll put him a solid fourth, with 12 per cent, and listed 19 per cent undecided, much of it potentially pro-Wallace. Labor, however, decided to do nothing.

—Sen. William Proxmire of Wisconsin said he would stay neutral. On Friday, he disclosed he had cast an absentee ballot for McGovern.

—Lindsay ran ads in the local papers proclaiming "McGovern Democrats are switching their votes to Lindsay." The next page reported a poll that showed McGovern 23 per cent, Lindsay 1 per cent.

—McCloskey has dropped his campaign and urged Wisconsin Democrats to support Lindsay, stating that the mayor's record was free of the "blemish" of voting for the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution. Lindsay told a news conference he couldn't recall if the House voted on it. Records showed it did—and he voted for it, too, when he was a Republican congressman.

Ann Landers

Early Morning Call May Be One For Help

Dear Ann Landers: I'm one of those men who used to hide your column under the sports page when I read it on the train. Now I am asking for advice.

Last week my wife and I were in Honolulu for a convention. The time difference between Honolulu and Hartford is five hours. Debbie (age 13) woke us up at 2 o'clock in the morning. My life and I were scared out of our wits. "Would we accept the charges?"

Of course we would! Hurry!

Well, it seems Debbie had a bet with her girl friend. "How do you spell marijuana?" I asked why she didn't look in the dictionary. She said, "You can't find anything in the dictionary unless you know how to spell it." I had to agree. In the meantime the call cost $14.50. I was so relieved that she wasn't calling to give us some terrible news that I thanked her and agreed to bring home a fresh orchid lei for her teacher.

My wife is burned up and says we should take the $14.50 out of her allowance. Do you agree? We've decided to let you settle it. --Friend Of Alexander G. Bell

Dear Friend: Of course such a phone call should only be made in an emergency and your child probably needs to learn something about the value of money. But there may be more serious questions raised here than the one you asked. Thirteen is a common age now for children to begin experimenting with marijuana. Was her seemingly silly question a cry for help? Do you leave her often? With whom?

Dear Ann Landers? I enjoyed that letter signed "Eleven Steps in Virginia," whose writer said the neighbors laughed when she carried her baby everywhere on her back --- papoose style. The mother had been told by the pediatrician that her child who wouldn't eat needed affection and that the warmth of a mother's body was very reassuring. So the young mother strapped the baby to her back, even while doing the housework and hanging out the wash.

How right that doctor was! Physical closeness breeds security. During the year I lived in West Africa I heard a child cry only once, when a mother was bathing him in a stream and the water was unusually cold. Since that fascinating year in the midst of "primitive" people, I have come to believe that while so-called civilized society over-indulges children by giving them material things, the children have many more emotional problems because they feel rejected. They are abandoned behind bars a good part of the day --- either in a crib or a play pen. The natural reaction is for a child to be lonely and cry.

We could learn a lot from the Indians, Africans and Eskimos. --- Old School For Me.

Dear Old School: Right you are! Thanks for some fascinating insights.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband's secretary told him today that she is nearly three months pregnant. She is a lovely young woman and has worked in his office for two years. She wants to stay in her job until she goes to the hospital to deliver.

My husband has asked me if it's all right. I have mixed feelings. I told him I'd write for your opinion. — Evansville Reader.

Dear Ev; If she can do it --- bravo for her. She'll feel better for having stayed busy and active throughout her pregnancy. If anyone on your husband's office doesn't know how babies come into the world, it's time they learned.

How much do you know about pot, LSD, cocaine, speed, meth, uppers and downers, glue and heroin? Are all these drugs dangerous? Get Ann Landers' new booklet, "Straight Dope on Drugs." Missouri Free of Hog Cholera

JEFFERSON CITY — Missouri officially has gained the coveted status of being free of hog cholera. Commissioner of Agriculture Dexter Davis was the recipient of a certificate honoring the state for the accomplishment at the Missouri - Kansas Pork Producers Banquet during the American Pork Congress held in Kansas City early this week.

The certificate was presented to the commissioner by Dr. M. J. Tillery, assistant director of Animal and Plant Health Inspection Services, U. S. Department of Agriculture, who lauded Missouri for being second only to Iowa among the top four pork producing states to achieve success in the nationwide program to eradicate hog cholera. Illinois and Indiana, the other big pork producing states, have not yet attained this status.

Commissioner Davis, in behalf of the State of Missouri, accepted the certificate, thanked the U.S.D.A. repesenatative and praised Dr. George C. Stiles, director of the Animal Health Division, Missouri Department of Agriculture, for his leadership in the saate and national program of hog cholera eradication. Davis, in turn, presented the certificate to Leroy Vollmer of Boonville, president of the Missouri Pork Producers Association, and declared it took the cooperative efforts of all segments of the pork industry to bring about this moment of U.S.D.A. certification.

Dr. Stiles reports that the hog cholera eradication program was enacted by the 1961 Congress, at which time the U.S.D.A. was authorized to cooperate with the states in stamping out the swine disease by 1972. By 1964 measures had been drawn up and phaseout goals set with 100 per cent of the state participating. Missouri, after having been free of hog cholera for 12 months consecutively, is the 40th state to successfully fulfill all requiremens of the the plan.

This accomplishment, according to Dr. Stiles, means an added value of over $1 million annually to the pork industry that will be realized primarily because of savings in vaccine and healthier hogs. He paid tribute to the many veterinarians, pork producers, farm organizations, truckers, market owners and the press for working together to bring about this hog cholera free status in Missouri.

"We're well into another project that will have a great impact on the livestock and meat industry, as well as the general public -- that is to make Missouri cattle and hogs free of brucellosis, another damaging animal disease," Dr. Stiles concluded.

HERBERT EDWARDS spreads 6-18-36 mix fertilizer on a mix cover crop of wheat and vetch on a farm, one mile south of Sikeston. The cover crop will be plowed under the first week of April for cotton planting April 18. The cover crop must have drying time before cotton can be planted.

Feeder Pig Show At West Plains

WEST PLAINS — South Missouri is rapidly becoming known as the feeder pig capital of the United States with the state ranking first in the nation in feeder pig production. In keeping with this coveted position, the second National Feeder Pig Show will be held at West Plains this year on June 1 — 2.

Entry requests have already been received for the 1972 show from procducers in 11 states, according to Secretary Cecil Junkins of West Plains -- Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas.

The show will start June 1, reports General Manager Rolland (Pig) Paul, with a pork feast and a program to follow. The master of ceremonies for the event will be Cordell Tindell, editor of the Missouri Ruralist magazine. Participating in a panel that will consider the subject of "Growth and Responsibility of the Feeder Pig Industry," will be Keith E. Myers of Grundy Center, Iowa; Frank Wilson of Arkansas City, Ark.; Dr. E. A. Butler, Iowa Department of Agriculture; and Calvin Harris of Lebanon.

Judges and speakers have been enlisted for the show from nine states: Dr. M. D. Whitaker, University of Kentucky; Dr. H. R. Grummer, University of Wisconsin; Dr. A. D. Fitzgerald, Louisiana State University; Harvey Richardson, Elmore City, Okla.; T. D. Tanksley, Texas A. & M; W. L. (Buddy) Richmond, Mississippi Statee University; John C. Rea, University of Missouri; Ken Anderson, Missouri extension livestock specialist; Gene DeWitt, FFA, Ponca City, Okla.; Professor Paul R. Noland, University of Arkansas; Charles Ausfhal, Missouri Cooperative Livestock Association; A. D. (Pete) Moles, MFA livestock division; and Dick Ireland of Green Hill Auction Services at Trenton, National Feeder Pig Show's champion auctioneer.

Peachy Outlook In Orchards

CAPE GIRARDEAU — With some orchards showing pink, peach growers in the Cape Girardeau area say unless there is a hard freeze a good peach crop can be expected this summer.

There was some loss to buds during the winter, bringing a natural thinning of the fruit, but largely the orchards in this area escaped extensive damage.

A few days of warm weather are expected to bring the peach trees into full bloom.

Care Needed In Medical Deductions

ST. LOUIS -- Most taxpayers are aware that they can deduct medical and dental expenses for themselves, their spouses and children if they itemize their deductions on schedule A of their federal tax return.

But, according to Eugene C. Coyle, Jr. , District Director of Internal Revenue for Missouri, the IRS is finding that some taxpayers are not claiming their medical deductions properly and are, therefore, slowing up the receipt of their refund.

Medical and dental expenses are deductible only to the extent they exceed three per cent of adjusted gross income on line 18 of the Federal tax return. Medicine and drugs may be included in medical and dental expenses only to the extent they exceed one per cent of adjusted gross income.

Taxpayers may deduct, disregarding the three per cent limitation, one half of the amount paid for medical insurance. This deduction, may not exceed $150. The remainder is includable as a regular medical expense.

Identifying taxpayers' errors of this type is a part of a new Internal Revenue Service program this year at all Service Centers. Service Centers are checking returns carefully in order to correct these errors so that taxpayers will not be subject to later interest charges.

Coyle urged taxpayers to check their returns over carefully when deducting medical and dental expenses, making certain that they take into account the one per cent limitation on medicine and drugs and the three per cent limitation on medical and dental expenses. A few minutes to double check the return will avoid errors and speed up any refund due.

For additional information about itemized deductions, contact your nearest Internal Revenue Service office.

Injured Bull Well Fed But Mends Slowly

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — An Angus bull that came to dinner four months ago at the University of Illinois still is there eating his way through supplies of oats, corn, molasses protein supplements and prairire hay shipped from his native Kansas.

But his weight, says Dr. Dale Nelson, university veterinarian, has slipped from 2,000 to about 1,700 pounds.

Dr. Nelson has been the bull's baby-sitter since the animal, valued at $200,000 by its owner, broke its left rear leg Nov. 25 in a fall at the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago.

"We removed the splint about six weeks ago," said Nelson. "But he still shows some lameness and soreness. It may be several more weeks before he recovers fully and can be shipped home. It's taken longer than we thought. But he's eating well and I'm not concerned about his loss in weight."

The bull, with the name of T.N. 9 Duplicate, is owned by Robert Laflin of Olsburg, Kan. Laflin phones every two weeks to check on the animal's condition, Nelson said.

"Our only problem was getting some prairie hay for him," said Nelson. "He didn't like what we grow around here and we had to get some wild hay to supplement the food we give him.

"He eats about 30 pounds of food a day, plus all the hay he wants, and washes it down with 20 gallons of water."

T.N. is kept in a private stall with a special floor that makes it possible for him to get up and down easier.

"He has adjusted to the situation real well," said Nelson.

Hayti Adopts Uniform Codes

HAYTI — The city council has joined four other area cities in accepting a joint municipal agreement for consideration of putting into effect, on a regional basis, a program of adoption and enforcement of uniform codes relating to housing, fire prevention, building, plumbing and electrical construction.

Ron Yersak, planning director of the Bootheel regional Planning Commission, reported that in addition to Hayti, New Madrid, Portageville, Cardwell and East Prairie have accepted the joint municipal agreement for consideration.

These communiites were chosen by the commission because of their completion of a comprehensive plan and certified workable program. Yersak said the Department of Housing and Urban Development requires the completion of these two programs in order to participate in the joint municipal agreement.

The agreement states that the participating communities should agree to establish a joint committee consisting of one representative from each municipality to adopt uniform rules and regulations. These committee members will perform the matters pertaining to the establishment and enforcement of the uniform ordinances.

If we could see this whole wide world
And its mysteries would unfold
With all its silver and its gold
And the treasures that it holds
And then look upon the ocean floor
There I am sure that we would still see more
But all of this will never be
Not on the land or on the sea --

30-Second Clock Big 8 Experiment

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Big Eight Conference likely will use the 30-second clock in basketball on an experimental basis next season.

Big Eight Commissioner Chuck Neinas says use of the clock is under consideration, and at least two coaches of Big Eight teams are in favor of the proposal.

The coaches are Norm Stewart of Missouri and Joe Cipriano of Nebraska.

Neinas said friday the proposal is in "the talking stage. We have asked the National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada for permission to experiment with the clock for one year."

Neinas said the proposal will be discussed at length at the conference meetings in Boulder, Colo., May 18 and 19, and "if our basketball coaches and athletic directors give their approval, we will seek formal approval of the committee. The committee has indicated already that it will approve."

Stewart told the Mexico, Mo., Ledger that the 30-second clock "would not have much effect on college ball except to reduce stalling at the end of a game. Statistics show now that college teams take much less than 30 seconds to get off a shot. I am in favor of the proposal."

"It will help take the pressure off the officials and all the counting they're involved in," Cipriano said. "It probably will take the same 10 seconds to get the ball across midcourt, though.

"I hope that this proposal will be given the chance it deserves. I think it'll help the whole game."

Neinas said there was nothing magic about 30 seconds and that experimentation might prove 45 seconds or 60 seconds were needed.

Nonconference opponents also would be asked if they wanted to use the clock, Neinas said. The clock would also be utilized in the league's preseason basketball tournament in Kansas City in December.

The proposal would provide that a team would have to take a shot at the basket within 30 seconds after gaining possession or yield the ball to the opposition.

Give some people an inch and you'll have some characters on your hands who want to be rulers.

HONG KONG (AP) — Manila golf pro Ireneo Legaspi shot a hole- in- one Saturday in the third round of the Hong Kong Open — only to be told that he made the ace on the wrong hole and did not qualify for a special prize of $3,000.

Legaspi sank his tee shot on the fourth hole, but tournament officials said the special prize was only for a hole -in - one on the second hole.

Owners Take Hard-Line Stand

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

"I can't believe it," said Danny Cater, a player with the Boston Red Sox.

"I'm sick," said Stu Holcomb, a vice president with the Chicago White Sox.

The two opposites presented the same pained reaction Friday after the Major League Baseball Players Association announced an intended strike against the owners.

The association announced the strike, starting today in every spring training camp, after reaching an impasse with owners over contract talks. The players want a heftier increase in their pension plan.

"I think the players are damn greedy," said Jim Campbell, the general manger of the Detroit Tigers.

Holcomb said that the White Sox are "closing up."

"There will be no more practice sessions, no games, no ticket sales, no nothing," said Holcomb, bitterly.

Holcomb said his club probably would give White Sox players money to get home, but added: "If I had my way, they wound't get anything."

August A. Busch Jr., of St. Louis, one of the most militant of owners, said "I'll be at the ball park at 8 a.m. Saturday morning and will meet anyone who's there." Busch announced recently that he wouldn't "give a damn cent more to the players."

Charles O. Finley, owner of the Oakland A's who's having his own personal money battle with pitcher Vida Blue, also took a hard-line stand.

"The players have just shot the goose that laid the golden egg," said Finley.

Baseball's hierarchy was distressed.

"Obviously, the losers in the strike action are the sports fans of America," said Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

"I was really disappointed," said Joe Cronin, the president of the American League.

Carl Yastrzemski and Reggie Smith, two veteran outfielders who make big money with Boston, were visibly upset.

So was Ken Tatum, a pitcher with the Red Sox.

"You don't know what to expect without a paycheck coming in and you have a family," he said. "Everybody thinks that all of us make $30,000 to $40,000 a year—and we don't."

Some players felt the strike was a good thing.

"If we aren't serious enough to strike, they can do anything they want to us," said Steve Dunning, the Cleveland pitcher. "If you're going to get anything, you've got to work for it."

The players are asking for a 17 per cent increase in pension benefits from the owners to cover the cost of living over the last three years.

The exhibition schedule went on Friday before, during and after the strike.

Cincinnati topped Kansas City 10-1; Oakland turned back San Diego 8-0; Texas nipped Montreal 3-2; the Chicago Cubs whipped Cleveland 7-3; Detroit downed Boston 6-2 and Houston trimmed Minnesota 3-2.

Rain washed out games between the Chicago White Sox and Pittsburgh Pirates and the Baltimore Orioles and New York Yankees.

Red Bird Players Go Home

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — "I'll be at the ball park at 8 a.m...and will meet anyone who's there," Cardinal owner August A. Busch, Jr., said Friday night.

But some of his players were packing their bags and arranging transportation home, following the announcement of a strike by the Baseball Players Association. The players want more money in their pension fund.

Bob Gibson, Cardinal hurler who earns $150,000 a year, said he was flying home to Omaha. He said of the decision to strike:

"It's obviously something that had to be done. It's unfortunate, but it doesn't alter the facts. If we accepted what they (owners) offered, we wouldn't receive the benefits we've been getting the last few years."

Lou Brock, Cards outfielder whose salary tops $100,000, said he would follow the strike action until the issue is resolved. The players will undoubtedly be hurt more than the owners," Brock said.

The Cardinals had a 1:30 game scheduled today with Cincinnati.

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball announced Wednesday that Braille schedules are available free for blind fans from the Library of Congress.

Requests for such schedules should be sent to the Library of Congress, Division for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Washington, D.C., 20542.

QUEBEC (AP) — The Quebec City entry into the World Hockey Association will be called "Les Nordiques," it was announced Wednesday.

The club's directors asked a news conference that the team name Les Nordiques be used in English. A committee formed last March to choose a name for the team had 475 different names suggested to them.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) -- Sherman Chavoor was named 1972 coach of the U.S. Women's Olympic seimming team Friday.

Strike Is On

NEW YORK (AP) — Four days before the scheduled start of the 1972 season, major league baseball players were set to begin an unprecedented strike today over a pension dispute while representatives of both sides were to get together to discuss the situation.

Officially, the strike began at 12:01 a.m. but the first results would not be felt until the players failed to show up for the 12 exhibition games on today's schedule.

Many players and owners alike seemed stunned when the 24 player representatives and their alternates voted 47-0 with one abstention—later identified as Wes Parker of the Los Angeles Dodgers—at a meeting in Dallas,Friday to call a walkout.

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, said the strike would be terminated only "in either of the following circumstances:

"1. If an appropriate settlement is reached with the owners or,

"2. If the owners agree to submit the dispute to binding arbitration by any prominent person not associated with either of the parties."

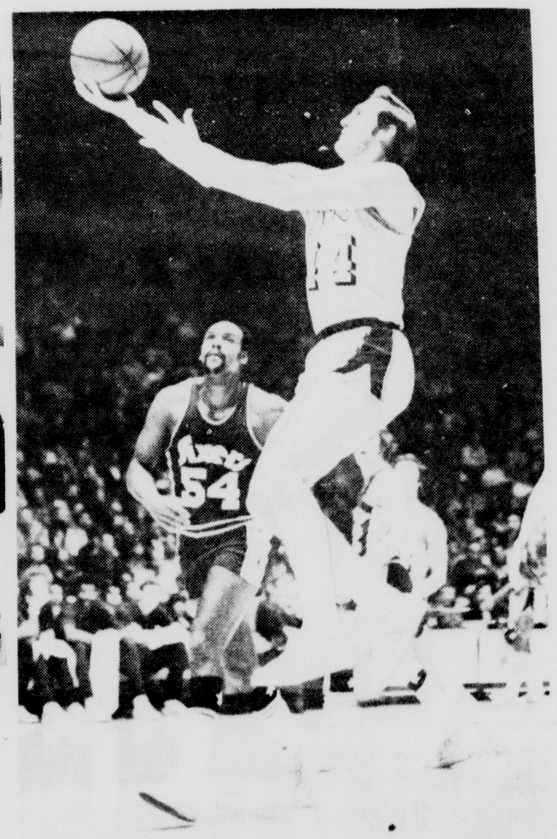
There didn't seem to be much chance of the latter when Francis Dale, president of the Cincinnati Reds and a member of the owners' Player Relations Committee, said, "We aren't going to turn to some outsider who doesn't know the game."

After the 4½-hour Dallas meeting, Miller headed for New York and a meeting today— time and place still undetermined—with John Gaherin, representing the owners.

The ,isue centers around the owners' one-and-only offer to increase the health care part of the players' pension package by $400,000.

The players want a 17 per cent increase, which Miller says could be met by an additional contribution from each of the 24 major league teams of less than $11,000. They also want a four-year agreement, but will settle for a one-year pact.

If the strike is not settled by Wednesday, it will mean at the very least a delay in opening the season. Houston is scheduled at Cincinnati in Wednesday's official opener, with 16 more teams slated to get under way Thursday and the rest on Friday.



Like Father, Like Son

The eight-year-old basketball player shooting the lay-up at left in a Biddy Basketball League game in Santa Monica, Calif., shows good form. But then his name is Mark West and his father, Jerry, has been known to make an occasional basket for the Los Angeles Lakers and shows a remarkably similar good form himself as he drives past Luke Jackson of Philadelphia in a recent National Basketball Association game at right.

MIAMI (AP) — The Miami Dolphins Wednesday announced they had added six free agents to the National Football League club's roster.

They are safety Theodore Lyons from Florida A&M, linebacker Bob Liljedahl from Springfield College, tackle Al Jenkins from Tulsa, wide receiver Dan Carroll from John Carroll College, linebacker Tom Barnum from Michigan State and defensive back Reginald Brooker from Cameron State

Hawks Even Series

"It was just an ordinary Bullets-Knicks game," said Baltimore forward Jack Marin.

Which means that it wasn't ordinary at all.

Baltimore and the New York Knicks engaged in one of their classic National Basketball Association playoff battles Friday night and the Bullets took a close one, 108-105 in overtime.

Marin and Archie Clark sank two free throws apiece in the last 39 seconds to give Baltimore a 1-0 lead in their bestofseven-game series.

"I hope our games aren't all this way," said Marin. "I don't like to work overtime."

In another Eastern Division semifinal series, the Atlanta Hawks whipped the Boston Celtics 113-104 to square their matchup at one game apiece.

The American Basketball Association began its playoffs Friday night with Indiana dropping Denver 102-96 in the Western Division semifinals and Virginia bounced the Floridians in 114-107 in overtime in the East.

NBA playoffs continue today with Milwaukee meeting Golden State in a series that is tied 1-1. In the ABA, it's the Floridians at Virginia and New York at Kentucky in the East Division and Denver vs. Indiana and Dallas against Utah in the West.

A field goal by Bill Bradley with 10 seconds left in regulation time sent the BaltimoreNew York game into the fiveminute extra period.

Then Clark took command, scoring five of his 38 points in overtime. He put the Bullets ahead 106-105 with 39 seconds on two free throws and Marin added the crusher with two more.

Rebounding was the difference in the Atlanta-Boston game. The Hawks had it, the Celtics didn't.

"They beat us on the boards Friday night as badly as we beat them in the first game," said Boston Coach Tom Heinsohn. "Now I'm concerned about the series. I'd be foolish to say I wasn't.

The Hawks, with Walt Bellamy grabbing 18, outrebounded the Celtics 56-40.

"It was a good psychological g me for us," said Atlanta Coach Richie Guerin. "It was the first time we've beaten Boston this year. We knew that we could beat them—but knowing it and doing it are two different things."

Indiana rubbed out a 49-46 halftime deficit with six straight points to start the second half, then held off a furious Denver rally to beat the Rockets.

The score was tied twice in the last four minutes before Freddie Lewis drove in for a layup with 2:01 remaining to put the Pacers ahead to stay, 96-94. Lewis scored 15 points in all, coming off the bench.

Julius Erving scored six points in overtime to spark Virginia over the Floridians.

1—In Memoriam

A poem in loving memory of our dear Dad, Lester Newton who passed away two years ago April 1, 1970.

Rest Dad in the kindly earth
Our love is with thee still
The silver stars that shine above
Are signs of Gods great will
And so it is with that calm rest that comes to everyone
It is a part of Gods own plan as in the setting sun.
And too, the love we have for Thee shall last throughout the years for it's a gift from Christ the son allaying all our tears.

Sadly missed by your granddaughter, Joy Appleton and family.

CORNELIUS

Along the seacoast of Palestine was the port city of Caesarea. During the time of Christ it had become the favorite community of Herod the Great. Here was stationed the prestigeous Italian Cohort, a leading military unit under the command of Cornelius, Roman Centurion and man of God.

The New Testament writers tell us that Cornelius was a devout and faithful believer. Although a Gentile, he had been a keen follower of the Jewish law, studied their prophets, and had given of his means to the poor and helpless. He experienced a vision, in which he was instructed of God to seek out St. Peter—who had, in another town, a simultaneous vision relating to the same theme: That all men could find the Risen Christ and be part of His fellowship.

Peter went to the home of Cornelius following his personal invitation, preached to his household, and baptized the family. For the first time, the followers of Jesus realized that one did not have to become a Jew to qualify for Christian baptism. Cornelius was Peter's first Gentile convert and probably the most important personality to aid the young Church. His influence and stature, his humility and devotion remain as an example to the entire Christian enterprise.

What's The Law

Even Gambler Can Become Bankrupt

By Jack Strauss, LL.B.

Freddy had the forlorned look of a crap shooter who could throw nothing but "boxcars." After years of high living, and spending money like water, he suddenly found that he couldn't liquidate his debts. And, with creditors all but popping out of the woodwork, he finally consulted an attorney and filed a petition in bankruptcy to cancel out his debts. In doing so, he listed a few pairs of holely socks as his sole assets and "salesman" as his occupation.

"That's a lot of baloney," protested several of Freddy's creditors who opposed the bankruptcy. "If Freddy was a salesman, it couldn't have been more than a hobby of his since his main activity was gambling. In fact, he spent more time at the track than the horses and anyone who would do that shouldn't be allowed to cop out in bankruptcy."

"Certainly I bet on the nags," was Freddy's answer, "but so what? Doesn't everybody? The trouble is that if a rich guy bets on the horses, he's a sport. If a poor man does, he's a bum. Certainly, that kind of double standard shouldn't prevent me from going into bankruptcy."

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you permit horsey Freddy to erase his debts in bankruptcy?

This is how the judge ruled: YES! The judge held that even if a person's chief occupation is gambling, that, in and of itself, would not bar his discharge in bankruptcy. (Based upon a 1962 United States Court of Appeals Decision)

People who play on your sympathies usually come up with the same, old tune.

Build a better mouse trap, and it'll turn out that someone else had a prior patent.

Officers Of C. of C. Installed

BERNIE — The annual dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and installation of officers was held Monday night in the high school cafeteria with 68 members and guests in attendance.

Outgoing C of C president Lendal Buttry highlighted the Chamber's work for the year, citing the success of the Western Days promotion in August and the Christmas promotion. Expenditures for the past year noted included $25 to the Bootheel Regional Planning Commission toward a regional study on waste disposal $25 to Bernie Housing Authority on care of the community building where the C of C meetings are held $210 to Christmas lighting fund, $150 to Christmas promotion and $170 the western promotion.

Speaker for the meeting was Dr. H. Tudor Westover, president of the Three Rivrers Junior College, Poplar Bluff, who told the group of his experience in working with Chambers of Commerce. He stressed the fact that the C of C and be a unifying force in any community.

New officers installed for the year include: Charles Rushing, president, Jerry Buttry, vice president Tom Burris, secretary and treasurer Ron Walker, Wanda Hughes and Neal Schunemyer, directors.

After the meeting, Loren Fjone, Research Analyst for the Department of Commerce met with interested persons to discuss a project intended to encourage medical students to locate their practices in rural area. The medical students would spend their summers working in rural areas in a hospital doctors office, or an agency such as Comprehensive Health Council of the Bootheel Regional Planning Committee.

A steering committee composed of Bob Keathley, chairman Dr. F. O. Kelly, Dr. C. C. Barnhart, Tom Burris and Leslie Norman were appointed to study the possibilities of having a student in Bernie.

The Prayer from The Upper Room

Make good use of every opportunity you get...Try to find out what the Lord wants you to do. --Ephesians 5:16-17 (TEV)

PRAYER: Lord, help me to remember that in this fastmoving, busy-busy society, loneliness is a commons ailment. Keep me aware and concerned for others. In Jesus' name. Amen.

$1,500 For Storm Alarms Being Sought

CHARLESTON — The Civil Defense in cooperation with other authorities has announced the organization of a storm warning system to be used in the event that severe thunderstorms or tornadoes strike the local area.

The plan calls for spotters to be posed at designated areas surrounding the city, and storm information will be forwarded to the control center located in the police department dispatch room.

When a tornado is reported moving in the direction of the city, a warning will be sounded using the electronic sirens on the police and fire department vehicles. This warning will be sounded throughout the city.

The "Wail Tone" will be used exclusively for storm warning. To acquaint the local citizens of this sound a practice warning will be scheduled in the near future. Time and date of this practice exercise will be announced at a later date.

The use of these electronic sirens on the emergency vehicles will be used until funds can be collected to purchase a storm warning system to be installed throughout the city of Charleston. A fund raising program to obtain funds for this warning system is being headed by Bill Lurk, Safety Officer for Brown Shoe Co. A goal of $1,500 has been set for this drive. Donations for this system may be sent to either Mr. Lurk at the Brown Shoe Co., Joe Johnson, Chief of the Charleston Fire Dept. or may be mailed to the Miss. Co. Civil Defense, P. O. Box 341, Charleston.

Local civic clubs are being contacted to help explain the organization and operation of the Storm Warning System. For information contact Ralph Carr Jr., Joe Johnson, Mike Bryant or Bill Lurk.

Today In U.S. History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Saturday, April 1, the 92nd day of 1972. There are 274 days left in the year. This is April Fools' Day.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1939, Generalissimo Francisco Franco announced that the Spanish Civil war was over, and the U.S. recognized his government.

On this date—

In 1578, the English physician and anatomist who discovered and explained the circulation of blood, William Harvey, was born.

In 1789, the U.S. House of Representatives held its first full meeting, convening in New York City.

In 1918, the Royal Air Force was organized in Britain.

In 1945, in the Pacific war, U.S. naval armada of more than 1,400 ships began the invasion of Okinawa.

In 1946, the United States told Cuba it would give up bases held on the island during World War II.

Five years ago: Vice President Hubert Humphrey and Pope Paul VI discussed Vietnam and other world problems at a Vatican meeting.

One year ago: President Nixon ordered Army Lt. William L. Calley Jr. released from the stockade at Fort Benning, Ga., and confined to officers' quarters pending appeal of Calley's conviction of murder in the My Lai slayings.

Thought for today: Faith is the substance of hings hoped for, the evidence of things unseen—The Bible.

Faubus Urges Support For Busing Moratorium

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Former Gov. Orval Faubus has sent a letter to the members of Arkansas' Congressional delegation urging them to support President Nixon's proposals to declare a moratorium on busing of students to achieve racial balance.

Faubus also said that busing should be "rolled back" in areas where it has been ordered and implemented.

"To suggest, demand or order that a member of any race or group must be compelled to sit beside a member of any other race or group in order to improve himself or his education, is an insult to any self-respecting member of any race or group," Faubus said in the letter.

Faubus, whoserved six terms as governor before retiring in 1966, said that what is needed is "quality education for all in neighborhood schools." Faubus unsuccessfully sought the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1970.

"Hauling children from their homes to distant schools away from their own neighborhood schools, passing each other on the roads, is a ridiculous, unnecessary burden on students, parents and school authorities," he said. "The funds for the burdensome expense of this unnecessary activity, could better be applied in the home area schools, and to raise teacher salaries of all groups in all areas."

Faubus said Nixon's proposals need to be approved "and even more done, to restore some semblance of order and harmony in the areas affected by busing, and to save quality education in the public schools of America."

Dear Editor:

UNGRATEFUL NATION

The Vietnam soldiers have served an ungrateful Nation well. Their conduct, even though they were subjected to battlefield conditions, was equal to their peers at home whose greatest discomfort was adjusting a thermostat up or down to get the desired temperature. Let their be no mistake about it, some of the greatest heroes the world has ever produced returned from Vietnam un- noticed, some could walk, some were on stretchers and some were in G.I. boxes; but the proud American people never missed an "X" rated movie, a ball game, a golf game or one (1) party.

The majority of their generation, including their commander in Chief's two (2) son-in-law's, escapedVietnam legally and many who couldn't, fled to Canada. Those privileged people called the "jet set" just kept jetting from one fun spot to another. Some of their commanders were profiteering Generals, some Sargents were skimming P.X. dollars while other officers were dealing with greedy selfish American businessmen to extract every possible blood stained dollar from these fighting men.

Their Commander in Chief was busy massing a personal fortune, acquiring many mansions, granting special favors to his campaign contributors and was an expert at changing his coats to suit the voters whims. A large percentage of the nation was following the President's frantic pace by grabbing every buck they could get their hands on and the American leaches (Better known as the wealthy who pay no taxes) just kept sucking the blood from those who do pay taxes.

While this was going on, the dependents of these fighting men were living in dire poverty on their shamefully small allotments. Now their Commander in Chief has offered North Vietnam (The killers of over 45,000 American Soldiers) 2-1/2 billion dollars but not one extra dollar to the orphans or widows of these gallant men who died in vain. The President calls it a generous peace offer but if we still have enough guts left to face reality all we have to do is probe a little deeper and this is what we find:

1. That generous peace offer would be paying the enemy over $50,000 for each American Soldier they have killed.

2.Our President treats the Viet Cong, who killed our Soldiers, better than he treats the Soldiers orphan children and widows.

3. Our President wants to make these widows and orphans pay the very enemy that killed their husbands and fathers by taking the survivors taxes and sending it to the cut throat communists. Would this be aiding and abetting the enemy?

This has to be the dawn of a new era, a turning point in our time, a complete departure from basic rights and wrongs, decency and fair play established over the thousands of years of mans existence.

Are there any readers of this paper that agrees with our President on this issue? If so, send a letter to the Editor explaining why and be sure to sign your name to it.

Volpe Urges Airport Truce In 60 Days

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Transportation Secretary John Volpe has sent copies of a letter to St. Louis area government and civic leaders, urging them to get together on a site for a second major airport.

Volpe said that in 60 days, if no agreement is reached, the government will go ahead and consider an application that has been filed for an Illinois airport site. No plan has been filed for a Missouri site.

St. Louis Mayor A.J. Cervantes said Thursday he thinks this is a good approach. He favors the site near Waterloo, Ill., and supports a plan for the city and state of Illinois to build and operate a $350 million airport.

But Lawrence K. Roos, supervisor of St. Louis County, said although he is willing to discuss the matter with federal officials, he hopes they don't try to jam the Illinois site "down the throats of citizens."

Roos said he would never give his blessing to a site that is opposed by the majority of airport users. He has said most of the users live in St. Louis County.

New Computer Tool To Aid Water Board

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — The Missouri Water Pollution Board has a new computer tool to help its water quality planning for a better environment.

It's called a STORET computer terminal for "storage and retrieval." The terminal is on loan now from the Environmental Protection Agency but may be rented later.

With it, the board can ask the computer data bank a question about water quality at any point in any area of the United States and get a quick answer — either raw data or a statistical analysis.

Missouri also can feed information from this state into the data bank on water quality, compliance, waste discharges and treatment facilities, fish kills and so on.

Participating in the new program are 30 other state water pollution and health agencies, the Environmental Protection Agency, U. S. Geological Survey and other state and federal agencies.

Field engineer Greg Mattli said the new terminal "will provide an invaluable tool for the water pollution board, particularly in basin planning."

Fire Razes Grain Elevator

FRISBEE — A grain elevator housing approximately a half- million pounds of milo and a tractor were destroyed by fire of undetermined origin in the predawn hours, Friday.

Firemen from Kennett and Holcomb responded to the alarm at 4:45 a.m. today when the blaze at the Frisbee Gin Company was detected.

The gin owner, Don James, had no immediate estimate on the loss, according to Kennett firemen. The fire fighters and trucks remained on the scene until after 7 a.m. Friday before bringing the blaze under control.

Upon arriving, firemen said the elevator was almost consumed by flames and was about to collapse. Efforts were concentrated on saving the surrounding buildings, including the gin and the grain dryer, which proved successful.

"We are such stuff as dreams are made on..."

Just knowing you've got the safety and security of U.S. Savings Bonds working for you can make dreaming for anything a lot more fun. Because, with Bonds, the good times and the good things can really happen.

So, don't give up dreaming. Just keep buying U.S. Savings Bonds—they're the stuff dreams are made of.

Now E Bonds pay 5% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months. If the first year, Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen, or destroyed. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Now Bonds mature in less than six years.

What You Want To Know

Q. - I would like to know if "Peyton Place" is really coming back to TV with new stories. I used to really eat this stuff up when it was on during the latter part of the '60s. If the show is to be revived, will some of the original stars be playing their same roles? I don't think Ryan O'Neal and Mia Farrow will be in the cast, but it would be nice to see them together again. — Mrs. E. D., Drexel, N. C.

A. - NBC has announced that it will premiere a new daytime series titled "Return to Peyton Place," which will be based on the characters and story of "Peyton Place," the novel, film and poplar TV series. Although efforts will be made to have some of the stars from the original TV series repeat their roles, Miss Farrow and Mr. O'Neal will not be among them. The date set for the first telecast is Monday, April 3.

Q. - Is the actor who plays Doug Williams in "Days of Our Lives" the same performer who used to sing with a girl vocalist on the old Sid Caesar - Imogene Coca Tv show, "Your Show of Show"? He looks just like the same performer, only older, of course. — N.B., Last Vegas, Nv.

A. - Bill Hayes, who plays Doug Williams in "Days of Our Lives," was the featured male vocalist, along with Judy Johnson, on the old "Your Show of Shows" series.

"CAPTAIN KANGAROO"

AN ALL TIME CHILDRENS' FAVORITE

Pictured are nine of the featured characters that will appear in a series of 50 filmed segments on health, nutrition and growing up -- prepared under the auspices of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare -- to be presented Monday through Friday on "Captain Kangaroo" for 10 consecutive weeks beginning Monday, April 3 (7:00-8:00 AM,) on the CBS Television Network.

What You Want To Know

Q. I am a fan of "Longstreet" and I have just a few questions about the show, since I missed seeing the two-hour movie which introduced the main characters and the idea of the series. First, did we ever see Longstreet sighted and did his wife appear in the first show? Also, how was he blinded and what became of his wife? - Y.V., Tampa, Fla.

A. In the pilot film which introduced the character of Mike Longstreet, James Franciscus was sighted and happily married to a beautiful lady for a few brief minutes at the beginning. Then an explosion, meant only for Longstreet, killed his wife and blinded him. And that's how the originators set the stage for the series.

Q. Is Lana Wood going to star in a TV series with Steve McQueen? My girl friend says she read this somewhere, but I figured to go right to your column, because you always have the latest news. M.R., Ypsilanti, Mich.

A. First and foremost, Steve McQueen is not slated to star in any TV series, with or without Miss Wood. And Lana Wood has not been signed for any TV series work. She scored with fans as Plenty O'Toole in "Diamonds Are Forever."

Q. Lee Majors is the sexiest guy in Hollywood, if you ask me, and I'd be on the next plane to Tinsel City if I thought I had a chance. Unfortunately, my husband and two kids would miss me. Is Major going to play in any movies? Mrs. T.O., Sacramento, Calif.

A. Lee Majors is not set to play in any films, but he will continue in "Owen Marshall," as well as making occasional guest shots on other series.

Bill Ryan, Frank Ferrell, Theon Grojean, and Mrs. Virginia Waters are battling for two vacant council seats in Sikeston. They are winners of the March 21 primary which saw three other candidates, including incumbant Kenneth Bridger, eliminated from the race.

Ryan, owner of the Ryan Construction Co., was the leading vote getter in the primary. He polled 553 votes.

Ferrell, a businessman and member of the Sikeston Industrial Development Corporation, ran second in the race with 456 votes.

Grojean, an engineer and former council member, placed third with 338 votes.

There are five candidates seeking two seats on the Sikeston R-6 school board.

Incumbent Phil Barkett, who is finishing his first three year term. He is owner of the Barkett's Big Star food store.

Mrs. Paul "Claudette" Holden is making her first campaign also. She is married to Paul Holden, an employe of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Lee Austin Bowman, president of the board, decided not to seek re-election.

Polls will be open from 6 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Polling places in Sikeston for both the school board and council are at the old police station (ward one precinct one), Ethridge Tire Company (Ward one precinct two), Sonny Presley Chevrolet (ward two, precinct one), Lincoln School (ward two, precinct two), fire station one (ward three, precinct one), Lewis Furniture Store (ward three, precinct two), the Armory (ward four, precinct one), and Imperial Bowling Lanes (ward four, precinct two).

Only two candidates are seeking two county school board seats. Both are incumbents. They are E. L. Stubbs of Chaffee and Boyd Duff of route two, Sikeston.

Loch Ness Legend Untainted

DUNFERMLINE, Scotland (AP) — A fearsome creature fished out of Loch Ness, home of Scotland's legendary monster, turned out today to be a frozen bull elephant seal of considerably smaller size than first reported.

It was an April Fool's hoax, police reported.

After the nine-foot, 350-pound dead beast had been seized from English zoologists taking it out of Scotland, an expert summoned to Dunfermline police headquarters found nothing supernatural about it.

Michael Rushton, general curator of Edinburgh Zoo, said the animal was just a young seal found far from its normal home.

"It's just an April Fool's Day joke," said Police Supt. Inas McKay of inverness. His precinct includes Loch Ness with its never-ending unconfirmed reports of sighted monsters.

Before today's hoax was nailed, a team of English zoologists claimed they fished the creature out of Loch Ness Friday and insisted it was no joke.

Scottish police stopped them from sneaking it to their Falmingo Park Zoo in Scarborough and held the creature overnight for investion. It was locally described as 18 feet long and weighing 1½ tons.

Air Strike Plans Reported

SAIGON (AP) — The United States is preparing massive air strikes inside North Vietnam in retaliation for an enemy offensive across the demilitarized zone, informed sources said tonight.

They reported that U.S. planes are awaiting clearing weather for the go-ahead.

The sources said American air support to the South Vietnamese has been limited by heavy cloud cover.

Targets inside North Vietnamese territory that are said to be ticketed for attack are long-range artillery guns that have been pounding South Vietnamese bases, supply depots, surface-to-air missile sites and any other gun positions.

Sources added that U.S. plans depend to a great degree on what North Vietnam does and whether it continues its offensive.

Two Escapees Captured

FARMINGTON, Mo. (AP) — Two escapees from the Missouri Training School for Boys at Boonville were captured Friday. One exchanged gunfire with police briefly.

One youth escaped from MTS Feb. 20, the other March 3. Both are from St. Louis.

The highway patrol said the pair abandoned a stolen car in Perryville late Thursday and stole two others.

Highway patrolmen caught one of them on Interstate 55 in Ste. Genevieve County Friday without resistance.

The other youth was captured in Farmington after a short gun battle. One of the cars stolen in Perryville was found in Farmington.

25 Cars Damaged In Slide

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The collapse of a limestone cliff onto Interstate 435 about one mile south of the Interstate 70 interchange Friday night dumped tons of rock on two northbound lanes and caused damage to about 25 cars that could not stop in time to avoid hitting the rocks or each other.

The highway patrol found about 20 cars stopped on the roadway among slabs of rock, some which were door-size and two feet thick.

No serious injuries were reported, although one youth identified as Donald A. Page, 17, was taken to Lakeside Hospital in Independence for treatment of a possible concussion.

Four cars collided a little later at the site when they swerved into the inside lane, which was free of rocks. No injuries and only minor damage was reported.

Northbound and southbound traffic was backed up for a quarter-mile about 30 minutes. Highway department graders were called in to clear the roadway.

Firemen were called to a pasture outside of town on North Ingram Street at 3:45 p.m. yesterday to fight a fire of undetermined origin.

They were called to two other grass fires. At 10:20 a.m. a burning trash barrel set fire to grass and shrubs at 202 Kramer Drive. The fire was at the residence of Dr. C. F. Eisenbach.

At 1:08 p.m. firemen were called to the J. R. Harwell residence at 214 Powers Drive., where a fire used to burn off a yard, got out of control and set fire to shrubbery.

AN EASTER BUNNY for her very own was won by Laurie Mothershead of Illmo in the annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club in Malone Park this morning.

Man Released In Shooting Incident

NEW MADRID — Bill Bradshaw, 49, of Morehouse, who was being held by New Madrid County sheriff's department in the investigation of yesterday's shooting of Roy Hailey has been released, according to deputy Walter Ivy.

Ivy said no charges have been filed in the investigation which is still continuing.

Hailey, a Morehouse tavern operator, was shot in the face, chest, shoulder, and arm by a 12-gauge shotgun at the Wayside Gin Company in Morehouse yesterday morning. He is described by doctors at Veteran's Hospital in Poplar Bluff as being in satisfactory condition today.

The highway patrol reported that both men apparently had been drinking and during an argument decided to shoot it out.

Hailey told the patrol when he arrived at the gin company he was met by a group of people, none of whom he recognized except Bradshaw.

He said he tried to talk to Bradshaw but someone fired a shot before he could. Hailey admitted firing a shot.

Government Against Over-Withholding

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government economists say they are concerned because taxpayers are letting too much money be withheld from their paychecks. They fear the overwithholding will retard the nation's economic recovery.

New income tax withholding schedules that went into effect Jan. 16 are taking more money out of paychecks than before, and people are not adjusting their withholding exemptions to reduce the amount of money withheld.

The Treasury Department said Friday it is collecting about $1 billion a month more than it anticipated in January. This factor, by itself, could reduce the current fiscal year deficit by about $5 billion.

In January, the Nixon administration estimated the government would end up $38.8 billion in the red at the end of the current fiscal year,Jan. 30.

But officials said Friday the budget deficit will run much lower than that.

Although the Office of Management and Budget has yet to come up with a new estimate, it now appears the deficit may prove to be $6 billion to $8 billion less than the January estimate.

President Nixon's budget could prove to be pretty close to balanced on a full-employment basis if the money keeps coming into the Treasury at the increased rate.

A full-employment budget puts expenditures at the level of revenues that would be produced if the economy were operating at high prosperity, which it isn't.

When Nixon disclosed the expected deficit in January, he said the budget would be in the red by about $8 billion on a fullemployment basis.

Five Held In Cairo Theft

CHARLESTON — Jerry Dale Venson, 18, and four juveniles all of Charleston, are being held for Cairo authorities following their arrest by police Friday morning.

Deputy Sheriff Everett Holley said the five are accused of breaking into the What-A-Burger Drive-In in Cairo Thursday and taking an assortment of potato chips, cakes and cookies.

In the seven to 11 age group, Brent Mims won the second prize and Gaylon Newton found the golden egg. Mims is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mims, 134 Reuben, and Newton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newton, 131 Rueben.

Grocers and egg ranches donated 60 dozen eggs that were hid in the park. Other businesses donated prizes and dye for coloring the eggs.

The admission money paid by the children to hunt eggs will go toward the purchase of a heart machine for the pediatrics ward in the Missouri Delta Community hospital.

Demilitarized Zone Crossed

Bloody Vietnam Battle

SAIGON (AP) —Thousands of North Vietnamese troops, crossing the demilitarized zone, engaged the retreating South Vietnamese today in the bloodiest fighting since the 1968 TET offensive, the Saigon commander in the north reported.

In what appeared to be a bid to seize all of the northernmost province of Quang Tri, the North Vietnamese drove the South Vietnamese from their 10th base in three days. The enemy pushed to within five miles of Quang Tri, the provincial capital. Six main government bases still held out along the defense line.

Lt. Gen. Hoang Xuan Lam, commander in the north, estimated 30,000 North Vietnamese had crossed into Quang Tri Province. Despite reverses, he claimed thousands of North Vietnamese had been killed.

Lam, after touring the northern quarter, said three North Vietnamese divisions, three artillery regiments, and antiaircraft units armed with surfaceto-air missiles had crossed the demilitarized zone into Quang Tri Province.

He left no doubt that the offensive allied officers had been predicting since late last year was under way. He reported South Vietnamese infantry, marine and armored-cavalry units were engaged in several bloody battles.

Lam did not identify the enemy units. His brief statement was released by the Saigon military command. A North Vietnamese division numbers about 10,000 men at full strength.

However, only hours earlier, U.S. intelligence estimates were more conservative. U.S. sources said they had reports of only two North Vietnamese divisions in the northern sector, the 304th and the 324B. A third division, the 308th, was said to be still north of the DMZ.

There have been no U.S. reports of surface-to-air missiles being moved into Quang Tri Province, although some close to the DMZ have fired at American planes.

Car Kills Fisk Girl

Donna Cunningham, 15, of Fisk was struck and killed by a car Friday as she walked across a street in Fisk, the Associated Press reported.

The highway patrol said the girl died in a Poplar Bluff hospital about four hours after the accident. The accident occurred before the weekend count of traffic deaths began.

The patrol said Roger Lee Lawrence, 22, of rural Fisk, the driver of the car was arrested shortly after the accident and charged with leaving the scene of an accident and having no valid vehicle registration.

He is being held in Butler County jail in Poplar Bluff pending filing of manslaughter charges, the patrol said.

Fisk is 12 miles east of Poplar Bluff.

The patrol reported a one car accident at 11 a.m. yesterday two and one half miles west of Charleston of I-57. According to the patrol, a car driven by Pamula Fadler, 26, of Flat River had a tire blow out and the car overturned in the meridan. Miss Fadler was taken to Missouri Delta Community hospital with minor injuries and released.

Tires Stolen

Two automobile tires were reported stolen yesterday.

John Enson, 861 Stanford Dr., told police that he had the two tires stored in his carport. He did not know when they disappeared, he said. The tires were valued at $50.

Consumer Savings Sought

Meany Asks Price Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prices charged by firms whose labor contracts have been cut by the Pay Board should be reduced, AFL-CIO President George Meany has told the Price Commission.

When a firm's labor costs have been cut by a Pay Boardaltered contract,the savings should be passed on to consumers, Meany said in a letter Friday to commission Chairman C. Jackson Grayson.

The letter came in response to a suggestion of Grayson's that Meany pass along any sentiments he had on improving controls.

In his letter, Meany said the AFL-CIO has offered numerous suggestions to the Price Comission, but they have been ignored.

Sen. William Proxmire, meanwhile, said he will ask Meany to justify his walkout from the Pay Board when he appears at hearings called by Proxmire's Joint Economic Committee. Hearings begin April 14.

The Cost of Living Council said Friday it has lifted price controls from international airlines' rates, clearing the way for fare hikes of up to 12.8 per cent beginning today.

The action came one day after the Civil Aeronautics Board approved a new international fare structure, permitting the fare hikes.

Also Friday, some major food chains cut their meat prices and others said they would not raise them for at least 30 days.

The action came after Secretary of the Treasury John Connally talked earlier in the week with representatives of the 12 largest food chains about high food prices.

Easter Pilgrims Jam Church At Jerusalem

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Easter pilgrims jammed Jerusalem's most hallowed church at dawn today for services of the blessing of the new fire before the tomb of Christ.

Jerusalem Patriarch James Joseph Beltritti led the sunrise service in the ancient Church of the Holy Sepulchre, built over the accepted site where Christ was buried. The new fire blessing symbolizes Christ's resurrection.

In other parts of the world,Christians joined in elaborate religious services, visited families, remembered their dead, went on holidays and created huge traffic jams.

More than 20,000 pilgrims and tourists were in the Holy City of Jerusalem for Easter and the Jewish Passover festival. The western Easter week there ends at dawn Sunday and the eastern Holy Week begins.

In Rome,Pope Paul VI will lead the world's Roman Catholics into the celebration with an Easter vigil Mass tonight in St. Peter's Basilica.

Sunday, the Pope will deliver his major Easter address to an expected 250,000 people in St. Peter's Square.

The Irish Republican Army and its political wing, Sinn Fein, scheduled 73 parades throughout the Republic of Ireland Sunday to commemorate the deaths of IRA men in the 1916 Easter Rebellion which ended in Ireland's partition.

President Eammon de Valera, 89, the only survivor of the 1916 leaders, will take the salute at an official procession in Dublin at the post office where the rising began.

West Berliners crossed the wall by the tens of thousands to spend Easter with families and friends in East Berlin and East Germany. About 500,000 people are expected to cross the border before the end of the oneweek pass periodgranted by Communist authorities. It is the first time in six years West Berliners have been allowed to visit East Berlin and the first time in 20 years they have gone into the East German countryside.

In Britain, the Archbishop of Canterbury and Cardinal Heenan, Roman Catholic primate, led appeals for peace in Northern Ireland during weekend church services.

'THE WEEK THAT CHANGED THE WORLD'

As President Nixon's visit to Communist China adjusts into the perspective of time, it becomes ever clearer that the President threw the weight of the United States to the Peking Government in its smoldering conflict with the Soviet Union. Thereby the balance of power in the world was changed. China was reopened to general trade with the United States and concomitantly with other Western countries that were doing little or no trading with the Communist regime. This was accomplished at the expense of the people of China, who have now been notified that they cannot look to the United States for any kind of help in any effort to overthrow their oppressors. This is raw, old-fashioned, power politics of an old European stripe.

The Russians watched in sardonic bitterness the showy appeasement of the Chinese Communists by President Nixon. They realized that the marathon accommodation of the U.S.S.R. by the United States had been abruptly changed. Whatever Mr. Nixon might bring to Moxcow in May, he could never undo the alteration that he had wrought in the status of the Peking government. All the while the expanding Soviets have been seizing positions in Cuba, pushing a large naval force into the Mediterranean and other seas, arming Egypt, Lebanon and Syria, instigating trouble for the U. S. in the Panama Canal, and occupying Czechoslovakia, as if Red China did not exist at all. The Soviet ploy had been completely disregarded with a "So what?" by Mr. Nixon.

The Soviet Russian position is that all nations on the Soviet borders are threats to the Soviet Union. Hence all the countries bordering on Russia on the west have been neutralized (Finland), annexed (Esthonia, Latvia, Lithuania and parts of Germany, Hungary and Rumania), or dragooned into obedient satrapies (Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria), as Yugoslavia is eyed and sized up for future "liberation." During all this period of Soviet Russian expansion since World War II, the United States has followed a policy that was not expressed or codified until put into words by Walt Whitman Rostow while he was the national security officer of President Johnson, thus:

"Rising tensions or the pleas of our allies or of the American public must be ignored in any crisis with Russia. The temptation must be avoided to prolong or expand any crisis in an effort to degrade or embarrass the Soviets in the eyes of the world." (P. 549, The United States in the World Arena)

President Nixon's move in Red China has embarrassed the Soviets "in the eyes of the world." But the President is going to Moscow, as, up to this moment, the Russians put the best face on the situation that they can. The world is not a less safe place since the issuance of the Nixon-Chou communique. It is in a more vigorous state of flux than ever.

Driving a wedge between Red China and Russia always did seem to be a good thing to do for the safety of the rest of the world. But was it necessary to bestow a general blessing on the leaders of one of the world's cruelest regimes in pursuit of American foreign policy? And will this fearful mistake be repeated in Moscow?

THE LILY AND THE PALM

The most popular flower of Easter is the lily. Its witness is a sign of joy and light, and symbolizes purity. The white lily is sacred to the Virgin. "Madonna lilies" burst into bloom on Easter dawn.

Tradition says that during the flight into Egypt, the mother of Jesus commanded the palm to bend its leaves above the Holy Babe to shade him. At another time the infant Jesus ordered the palm to bend, so the Virgin could gather fruit. Because it willingly obeyed his command, he blessed it and chose it as a symbol of salvation for the dying, promising when he entered Jerusalem in triumph, it should be with a palm in his hand.

In memory of that day, Palm Sunday is celebrated.

APRIL'S COMING IN

April's coming in with promise, as it should. March was only yesterday, but it was another season. So much for calculating astronomers. Growing things have a cadence of their own, more moody than that of the spheres on their appointed courses in the distant firmament. Yet for city men, too, spring may seem merely a time-point marked by clock and calendar. As Gerard Manely Hopkins wrote: "All is seared with trade; bleared, smeared with toil: And wears man's smudge and shares man's smell."

Which city man goes on pilgrimage with Chaucer, banters and frolics with Shakespeare, or hears John Burrough's drummer boys of April, the little frogs? Who believes with Wordsworth that "one moment now may give us more Than years of toiling reason," or cares about T. S. Eliot's complaint that 'April is the cruelest month"? Aren't they all cruel?

Despite its pollution, however, the April sky will turn a pellucid blue, the sun will brighten, buds will burst and birds will sing even in city trees. And if only faintly, city men will feel what Solomon felt when he sang: "For, lo, the winter is past ... and the voice of the turtle is heard in the land." Hope will burgeon and the urban mood will change just as Hopkins' mood changed, caushing him to sing:

What is all this juice and joy?
Astrain of the earth's sweet being in the beginning ...
Nothing is so beautiful as spring.

HOSTAGE BANK ROBBER GROWING U. S. MENACE

Along with the plane hijacker, a growing menace on the U. S. scene is the hostage bank robbery.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, called attention to this fact in a message to the nation's law enforcement officials in the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin for March. He also cited an increase in bank robberies.

Here, in part, is what he said:

On an average of nine times each day during 1971, bank robbers and thieves victimized banking institutions in violation of the Federal Bank Robbery and Incidental Crimes Statute. These 3,285 assaults -- robberies, burglaries, and larcenies -- represented an 8.5 per cent increase over the 1970 figures. There were 2,586 bank robberies in 1971, 255 more than the previous year and an increase of 10.9 per cent.

More and more banking institutions are using security devices, such as cameras, and bank robbers are aware of this. Consequently, more and more robbers resort to techniques to circumvent these technical safeguards.

One of their most dangerous ploys is the seizing of hostages to force bank officials to open bank vaults while the facilities are closed and give the money to them, thus minimixing exposure to security devices. The terror and danger connected with these tactics defy description.

Recently, a bank robber-fugitive was slain in an early-morning gun battle with FBI agents outside a motel room in which he was holding the president of a local bank and three members of his family as hostages. The victims were rescued unharmed. The gunman had planned to force the official to open the bank vault prior to the start of business that day. He was also being sought for bank robbery in another state in which he had held a bank official and two members of his family as hostages and escaped with $24,000.

In another case, one of three gunmen held 13 members of a bank manager's family as hostages while the other two robbers forced the official to drive to the bank and open the vault. The trio, later arrested, escaped with $405,000.

Obviously, the hostage bank robbery is more than a crime against property; it is a growing menace to banking officials and their families. The specter of the armed criminal follows the banking official to his office and back.

The hostage bank robbery is not a condition that an open, free soviety can live with. This dangerous crime merits the grave concern of every banking institution, law enforcement agency, and community in the nation. A campaign of continuous, coordinated effort is needed to make the odds against success so great the hostage bank robberies will cease.

EASTER, 1972

Spring brings Easter and the wonderful, joyous feeling of a new beginning — a rebirth of spirit and energy.

Nature is the embodiment of this rebirth and the older a person becomes, the more joy there is in watching the world come back to life.

This year our national spirit, too, needs revitalization. Young and old, easterners and westerners, workers and management in this melting pot of ethnic and political backgrounds that is America, all share the same goals of peace and prosperity for all.

Just as spring is a time for Nature's growth, so our economy must grow and become more productive to compete in world markets. Successful resolutions of past differences have made us strong. There is great hope for the future.

MARXISTS, AND FRIENDS NEVER LEARN

So many examples of basic failures of Marxist policies abound that it looks like communists and socialists eventually would learn that their system cannot deliver the goods. The latest example is the abject failure of communism in Cuba: the world's greatest producer of cane sugar this year will have its worst harvest in six years.

Despite aid from Moscow of more than $1 million a day, the Cuban economy is in shambles. Castro's subjects, who once enjoyed massive sugar surpluses, are having their personal sugar ration cut from six pounds a month to four pounds. Still there won't be enough sugar to meet foreign exchange needs.

The people who once had the highest standard of living of any Latin America nation now live in grinding poverty, not a few poor people, but everybody -- except the few in the communist elite who boss everything in Cuba. If the people of Formosa or South Korea or Greece or Spain or any other anti-communist nation had to have their previous chief crop rationed, we would hear a great deal about if from the national TV networks.

Castro has drafted civilian and military workers and forced them to work in the fields, along with some volunteer revolutionaries from U.S. communist groups, but continues to suffer disasters in every economic activity. Freedom enthusiasts can point to a long line of failures by nations which have abandoned personal enterprise and the profit-motive system.

Argentina once was the leading beef-eating country in the world. Peron adopted a socialist-like system to "build" the economy and Argentina never has recovered, periodically being forced to ration beef even today. Russia and China both have been forced to buy wheat to fight communist-caused famines, despite being the two largest land area nations in the world. Marxists and their friends never learn. HLH

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON -- The Agriculture Department's own Inspector General has accused it in a harsh, suppressed memorandum, of flagrantly violating federal laws against pollution of the environment.

Interior Department conservation are secretly drafting a similar memo, echoing the charges, despite White House efforts to soften the confrontation.

The twin attacks show how the Agriculture Department has changed through the years. In 1935, after the nation's worst dust storm, it was Agriculture which resolutely fought erosion, guarded forests, planted hedgerows and evangelized for contour farming.

Now, almost four decades later, Agriculture officials bow to the environment- -be -damned whims of Rep. Jamie Whitten, D-Miss., the House Agriculture Appropriations chairman.

Whitten's coterie includes the land developers, farm barons and suburban contractors. Inside the Agriculture Department, their interests come ahead of the nation's checkerboard of small farms and deep woodlands.

Like other federal agencies, however, Agriculture comes under the 1969 Environmental Policy Act. And, last October, the Department's Inspector General, an old Kennedy-era crimebuster named Nathaniel Kossack, began putting together a report on Agriculture 's noncompliance with the Act.

On December 9, Kossack's signed report was privately delivered to Agriculture Assistant for Science and Education, Dr. T. C. Byerly. He quickly exempted it from public disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

Small wonder Byerly suppressed it. These are its findings:

SECRET FINDINGS

"There were no organized procedures at the Department level to assure that environmental statements" required by the Act "were prepared..."

Even those that were prepared sometimes were "made to justify proposed actions" rather than to protect the streams and air near Agriculture projects.

The Agriculture secretary's aides had been told to evaluate how the department's anti-polution fight was proceeding, but this "has not been done and is not considered to be of top priority.

There was a fumbling, bumbling, buck-passing attitude on pollution throughout Agriculture and, in some divisions, an active reluctance "to invite participation" by the department's anti-polluters.

While these charges are being digested within Agriculture, the Interior Department's Sport Fisheries and Wildlife Bureau is drawing up an equally strong indictment of Agriculture. We have also obtained a copy of its confidential draft report.

With refreshing candor, the draft admits there is "contention between the two Departments" over the environment. Specifically, the issue is Agriculture's hopes of "channelizing" up to 150,000 miles of the nation's streams.

"Channelizing" means to bulldoze twisting streams into straight muddy ditches. This technique, promoted by Congressman Whitten, speeds rain run-off and, in theory, prevents flooding. It also ruins the fishing, destroys the scenery, drys up the swamplands where birds and small animals breed, and can make neighboring forests die of thirst.

LAND BARONS

The main beneficiaries are not the small farmers, but the great land barons who have land by the streams. "Channelizing" makes more dry, flood-free land available, and the owners can then peddle it to land developers who bring in the builders.

The Sport Fisheries and Wildlife Bureau says that Agriculture has largely ignored its advice on "channelizing" and flatly opposed it on 82 of 238 projects.

"Although the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife and the State fish and game agencies were invited and did participate" in Agriculture decision-making meetings, there is "little evidence that their views were adopted," says the memo.

Sport Fisheries and Wildlife says that even when Agriculture did file the environmental statements required under the Act, they were so full of holes that President Nixon's Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) should have "rejected (them) as not being in compliance with the law."

To soften such unbureaucratic bluntness, the White House and CEQ secretly called together Interior and Agriculture officials at a meeting last Monday. The overall purpose, of course, is to prevent the threatening confrontation from becoming public.

Both CEQ and Interior deny any intention to kill the controversial Interior memo. Said Interior: "Nobody is going to do a whitewash."

At Agriculture, Dr. Byerly said he is working to correct the conditions described by Inspector General Kossack.

Mission to Moscow: U. S. Communist Chief Flies To Brief Kremlin on Nixon

NEW YORK -- Somehow the unnoticed, unobserved and unfortunately unreported Communist Party U.S.A. is as loaded with money as Ralph Nader is with complaints.

Somehow this American Communist Party (CP) never hesitates to spend scores of thousands of dollars on a national convention, well - packed rallies and receptions, regional headquarters, theoretical publications, Marxist- Leninist schools -- and domestic and international travel.

At the moment, for example, party chief General Secretary Guss Hall, his wife Elizabeth, and several others are swinging around their new international circuit -- Moscow, Cuba, Moscow and then back to the U.S.

There is no doubt in American intelligence circles that Hall has gone to Moscow to be briefed and to be debriefed on tactics and other "matters'. involving President Nixon's visit to the Soviet Union beginning May 22.

There is no doubt that, despite the intricate Soviet intelligence systems operating in the U.S., the Communist Party U.S.S.R. general secretary Leonid Brezhnev wants Hall's personal views on Middletown America. Hall comes from the Warren-Youngstown steel area. He was a founder and onetime field representative of the United Steeelworkers. He has never lost touch. He still whips around the country speaking, denouncing, needling, and always seeking sources for recruiting -- especially young folks and black workers these days.

It is significant to note here that the American Communist Party is rife with anti- Jewish ("chauvinist") vituperation and overt anti- Israel propaganda. Meanwhile, back at the Kremlin, it is presumed in authentically informed circles here, Hall will be quizzed on President Nixon's chances for reelection, the reaction to his visit to Peking and the probable winner of the packed Democratic primary races.

Gus Hall knows Main Street America. Since he is virtually a Soviet agent here, figuratively speaking, his every move is considered an obvious clue to Russian policy. Therefore, there is significance in the American party's efforts to link itself with the Black Panthers, concentrate on black districts and in the naming of California communist Angela Davis to the party's new 60-member central committee. No U.S. CP Command Decision Political Bureau (politburo) has yet been named -- and won't be until the membership of this tough top control unit is approved in Moscow and Hall returns late in April. There is significance, too, in his swing around the huge circle from New York to Moscow to Cuba, back to Moscow and then to national party headquarters here.

In Moscow, Hall will be able to report that he has been successful in recruiting young people -- more than half of the 275 delegates to the party's 20th convention at the Towers Hotel here were well under 30. Also, there were considerably influential black delegates, such as Charlene Mitchell, secretary of the party's Black Liberation Commission.

There also is a Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL). No one, of course, knows just what Hall's instructions will be. American intelligence doesn't bug the Kremlin, much as they dream of it. But Hall will tell his Soviet superiors and comrades that he has a lively American party -- worth its weight in gold rubles as a source of recruitment for key assignments anywhere in the land. At this moment Hall has flying squads working across the country from Hawaii and Alaska right down to the deep Southeast.

These teams go into poor and black neighborhoods with petitions -- sign here, this is how to fight the rich, the imperialists, and capitalism itself. In Pennsylvania the party filed 40,523 signatures on its Gus Hall- Jarvis Tyner (chairman of the YWLL) presidential nominating petitions. In Ohio the party got some 9,000 signatures. In Kentucky, 1,453. Though there is some doubt about the authenticity of signatures filed in Alabama, there were some 6,300. Teams are operating in auto and steel areas as well as across the states of Hawaii, Alaska, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Illinois and Tennessee.

This takes lots of cash. But the money is there -- for a party structure, new membership cards, regional councils, baby- sitters and cocktail receptions, paid officials, 15,000 members, several schools, a daily publication, several leagues, and travel, lots of travel.

Obviously the Soviets consider it a profitable investment. Not enough to make a revolution. But enough to make trouble -- lots of it obviously.

Reunion Planned For Transplanted Church

FULTON, Mo. (AP) — A famous Christopher Wren church that has been burned, bombed, restored, rehallowed and moved across an ocean and continent will finally be united with its denomination Easter Sunday.

Anglican Holy Eucharist services, as celebrated by the American Episcopal Church, will be held in St. Mary Aldermandbury Church for the first time since a German firebomb left only its walls standing during Christmas of 1940.

The Rev. Wayne Johnson is to conduct the first Feast of Easter services in the church that was shipped stone by stone from London to serve as a memorial to Sir Winston Churchill on the campus of Westminster College here where he made his renowned "Iron Curtin" speech March 5, 1946.

The services will be held 300 years to the day that Wren began construction of the original St. Mary parish in London.

The Easter services have been made possible through an agreement with Westminister College, custodians of St. Mary, Aldermandbury. The Diocese of London gave the college 3'64. Before Sunday's communion, only nondenominational services were held.

The local Episcopal mission has no building of its own and requested that it be permitted to use the church for Easter services.

The church has been without an Episcopal congregation the last 22 years of its 300-year history, even though it was rehallowed an Episcopal Church in this country three years ago by the Bishop of Dover.

The St. Albans mission is under the Diocese of Missouri, headed by Bishop George L. Cadigan of St. Louis.

Former congregations of St. Mary Aldermandbury, have traditionally maintained their church despite major disasters. They left it only after it became financially impossible to repair.

The great fire of London in 1670 destroyed the original church, which dated back to about 1100.

The architect Wren submitted plans the next year for rebuilding the church on its original foundation. Construction began Easter Sunday, 1672, and it was completed in three years.

But 240 years later, on the night of Sept. 8, 1915, during World War I, a German fire bomb again damaged the church. Then the final blow 25 years later when a German incendiary bomb crashed into the church four days after Christmas. Only the stone walls and 12 interior columns were left standing.

Those ruins were cleaned and shipped to Westminister College in the spring of 1966 as the basis of a tribute to Sir Winston.

Chaplain Acquitted Of Adultery Charges

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Cmdr. Andrew F. Jensen, the first Navy chaplain ever tried by general court- martial, has been acquitted of charges of misconduct by adultery with two women.

The women, wives of Navy officers, testified during the two- week trial that they had sexual intercourse with Jensen on 21 occasions.

Jensen, a 43- year- old father of two, took the stand to deny the allegations on every count.

The charges brought by Mary Ann Curran, 24, and Lora Gudbranson, 38, could have ended Jensen's 16- year Navy career.

However, his denomination, the American Baptist Convention, and his wife stood squarely by him since the charge was brought Aug. 11, 1971. Kathleen Jensen, 43, testified on her husband's behalf, as did several fellow chaplains and officers.

The American Baptists protested the Navy's action and withheld assigning any more ministers to Navy duty while Jensen remained accused.

Spokesmen for the denomination could not be reached immediately for comment on the verdict.

When the verdict was announced Friday, Mrs. Jensen reached across a rope separating participants and spectators in the courtroom. She hugged her husband and exclaimed, "Thank the Lord!"

She quoted Romans 8:28: "All things work together for good for those who love the Lord."

Many Wisconsin Voters Undecided

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Polls show between 20 and 30 per cent of Wisconsin voters still undecided on how to cast their ballots in Tuesday's presidential primary. It's easy to see why they may be confused.

There are 12 candidates on the Democratic ballot, one more than in Florida. The added starter is Rep. Patsy Mink of Hawaii, who is listed in Wisconsin because she is running for president in the Oregon primary.

—There is also a Republican primary. President Nixon is opposed on the ballot by Reps. John Ashbrook of Ohio and Paul N. McCloskey of California. Voters can vote in either primary, and some Republicans are encouraging crossovers to vote for Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama,to embarrass the Democrats.

—Former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, who won the 1968 Wisconsin Democratic primary, started his campaign here by urging a vote for someone else, either Rep. Shirley Chisholm or Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York.

—Mrs. Chisholm's campaign coordinator said he had switched to McGovern, and Mrs. Chisholm is spending the weekend before the primary on holiday in the Virgin Islands.

—Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine started out as the frontrunner here.

Minnesota, Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota and Wallace.

—McGovern has been quietly building here for a year. Now, everyone has discovered he has a strong organization. McGovern has been saying for months he would finish at least a strong second and predicting Humphrey might knock Muskie out of the race in the early primaries.

—Organized labor said it would mount a major drive if a poll showed strength for Wallace. The poll put him a solid fourth, with 12 per cent, and listed 19 per cent undecided, much of it potentially pro-Wallace. Labor, however, decided to do nothing.

—Sen. William Proxmire of Wisconsin said he would stay neutral. On Friday, he disclosed he had cast an absentee ballot for McGovern.

—Lindsay ran ads in the local papers proclaiming "McGovern Democrats are switching their votes to Lindsay." The next page reported a poll that showed McGovern 23 per cent, Lindsay 1 per cent.

—McCloskey has dropped his campaign and urged Wisconsin Democrats to support Lindsay, stating that the mayor's record was free of the "blemish" of voting for the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution. Lindsay told a news conference he couldn't recall if the House voted on it. Records showed it did—and he voted for it, too, when he was a Republican congressman.

PATRONS OF THE NEW MADRID COUNTY
R1 ENLARGED SCHOOL DISTRICT

I am a candidate for re-election to YOUR Board and there is organized opposition against me.

Next Tuesday we will have the opportunity to witness once again the mechanics of a political organization attempting to elect one candidate or the other - and this time, believe it or not, it's in a school election. We think this is where the error lies. We think that this is a stampede over the cliff on an issue that is not in their province. Nevertheless, they're cranking up the same old machinery again to go at in your school election.

And so my chief opposition in my bid for re-election is not from the candidates themselves, but from this source, and not for reasons connected with schools, but because I have dared to differ on other matters, specifically on matters of city government in my home city where I am Mayor (but that's another story).

In the belief that it is still the people's government, it was my decision to run for this office in spite of such opposition. Is it the people's school system, or does it belong to a scattered few?

Only you can answer that, and you can do it only by extra effort. I'm asking you to take on a dedication to keep politics out of your schools, a dedication to do all you can in this one.

It is not I, Paul E. Mahar, who is on the line in this one; it is you; it is simply my name on the ballot for you.

During this Easter season, I am reminded of the prayer of the Greatest of all Teachers about allowing this cup to pass. And I too, wish this lesser one had not fallen to me - but I have picked up the gauntlet in your name, and with your support, we shall shred a paper tiger.

Early Morning Call May Be One For Help

Dear Ann Landers: I'm one of those men who used to hide your column under the sports page when I read it on the train. Now I am asking for advice.

Last week my wife and I were in Honolulu for a convention. The time difference between Honolulu and Hartford is five hours. Debbie (age 13) woke us up at 2 o'clock in the morning. My life and I were scared out of our wits. "Would we accept the charges?"

Of course we would! Hurry!

Well, it seems Debbie had a bet with her girl friend. "How do you spell marijuana?" I asked why she didn't look in the dictionary. She said, "You can't find anything in the dictionary unless you know how to spell it." I had to agree. In the meantime the call cost $14.50. I was so relieved that she wasn't calling to give us some terrible news that I thanked her and agreed to bring home a fresh orchid lei for her teacher.

My wife is burned up and says we should take the $14.50 out of her allowance. Do you agree? We've decided to let you settle it. --Friend Of Alexander G. Bell

Dear Friend: Of course such a phone call should only be made in an emergency and your child probably needs to learn something about the value of money. But there may be more serious questions raised here than the one you asked. Thirteen is a common age now for children to begin experimenting with marijuana. Was her seemingly silly question a cry for help? Do you leave her often? With whom?

Dear Ann Landers? I enjoyed that letter signed "Eleven Steps in Virginia," whose writer said the neighbors laughed when she carried her baby everywhere on her back --- papoose style. The mother had been told by the pediatrician that her child who wouldn't eat needed affection and that the warmth of a mother's body was very reassuring. So the young mother strapped the baby to her back, even while doing the housework and hanging out the wash.

How right that doctor was! Physical closeness breeds security. During the year I lived in West Africa I heard a child cry only once, when a mother was bathing him in a stream and the water was unusually cold. Since that fascinating year in the midst of "primitive" people, I have come to believe that while so-called civilized society over-indulges children by giving them material things, the children have many more emotional problems because they feel rejected. They are abandoned behind bars a good part of the day --- either in a crib or a play pen. The natural reaction is for a child to be lonely and cry.

We could learn a lot from the Indians, Africans and Eskimos. --- Old School For Me.

Dear Old School: Right you are! Thanks for some fascinating insights.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband's secretary told him today that she is nearly three months pregnant. She is a lovely young woman and has worked in his office for two years. She wants to stay in her job until she goes to the hospital to deliver.

My husband has asked me if it's all right. I have mixed feelings. I told him I'd write for your opinion. Evansville Reader.

Dear Ev; If she can do it --- bravo for her. She'll feel better for having stayed busy and active throughout her pregnancy. If anyone on your husband's office doesn't know how babies come into the world, it's time they learned.

How much do you know about pot, LSD, cocaine, speed, meth, uppers and downers, glue and heroin? Are all these drugs dangerous? Get Ann Landers' new booklet, "Straight Dope on Drugs." For each booklet ordered, send a dollar bill plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope (16 cents postage0 to Ann Landers, box 3346, Chicago, Ill. 60654.

Missouri Free of Hog Cholera

JEFFERSON CITY — Missouri officially has gained the coveted status of being free of hog cholera. Commissioner of Agriculture Dexter Davis was the recipient of a certificate honoring the state for the accomplishment at the Missouri - Kansas Pork Producers Banquet during the American Pork Congress held in Kansas City early this week.

The certificate was presented to the commissioner by Dr. M. J. Tillery, assistant director of Animal and Plant Health Inspection Services, U. S. Department of Agriculture, who lauded Missouri for being second only to Iowa among the top four pork producing states to achieve success in the nationwide program to eradicate hog cholera. Illinois and Indiana, the other big pork producing states, have not yet attained this status.

Commissioner Davis, in behalf of the State of Missouri, accepted the certificate, thanked the U.S.D.A. represenatative and praised Dr. George C. Stiles, director of the Animal Health Division, Missouri Department of Agriculture, for his leadership in the saate and national program of hog cholera eradication. Davis, in turn, presented the certificate to Leroy Vollmer of Boonville, president of the Missouri Pork Producers Association, and declared it took the cooperative efforts of all segments of the pork industry to bring about this moment of U.S.D.A. certification.

Dr. Stiles reports that the hog cholera eradication program was enacted by the 1961 Congress, at which time the U.S.D.A. was authorized to cooperate with the states in stamping out the swine disease by 1972. By 1964 measures had been drawn up and phaseout goals set with 100 per cent of the state participating. Missouri, after having been free of hog cholera for 12 months consecutively, is the 40th state to successfully fulfill all requiremens of the the plan.

This accomplishment, according to Dr. Stiles, means an added value of over $1 million annually to the pork industry that will be realized primarily because of savings in vaccine and healthier hogs. He paid tribute to the many veterinarians, pork producers, farm organizations, truckers, market owners and the press for working together to bring about this hog cholera free status in Missouri.

"We're well into another project that will have a great impact on the livestock and meat industry, as well as the general public -- that is to make Missouri cattle and hogs free of brucellosis, another damaging animal disease," Dr. Stiles concluded.

HERBERT EDWARDS spreads 6-18-36 mix fertilizer on a mix cover crop of wheat and vetch on a farm, one mile south of Sikeston. The cover crop will be plowed under the first week of April for cotton planting April 18. The cover crop must have drying time before cotton can be planted.

If we could see this whole wide world
And its mysteries would unfold
With all its silver and its gold
And the treasures that it holds
And then look upon the ocean floor
There I am sure that we would still see more
But all of this will never be
Not on the land or on the sea --

Care Needed In Medical Deductions

ST. LOUIS -- Most taxpayers are aware that they can deduct medical and dental expenses for themselves, their spouses and children if they itemize their deductions on schedule A of their federal tax return.

But, according to Eugene C. Coyle, Jr. , District Director of Internal Revenue for Missouri, the IRS is finding that some taxpayers are not claiming their medical deductions properly and are, therefore, slowing up the receipt of their refund.

Medical and dental expenses are deductible only to the extent they exceed three per cent of adjusted gross income on line 18 of the Federal tax return. Medicine and drugs may be included in medical and dental expenses only to the extent they exceed one per cent of adjusted gross income.

Taxpayers may deduct, disregarding the three per cent limitation, one half of the amount paid for medical insurance. This deduction, may not exceed $150. The remainder is includable as a regular medical expense.

Identifying taxpayers' errors of this type is a part of a new Internal Revenue Service program this year at all Service Centers. Service Centers are checking returns carefully in order to correct these errors so that taxpayers will not be subject to later interest charges.

Coyle urged taxpayers to check their returns over carefully when deducting medical and dental expenses, making certain that they take into account the one per cent limitation on medicine and drugs and the three per cent limitation on medical and dental expenses. A few minutes to double check the return will avoid errors and speed up any refund due.

For additional information about itemized deductions, contact your nearest Internal Revenue Service office.

Injured Bull Well Fed But Mends Slowly

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — An Angus bull that came to dinner four months ago at the University of Illinois still is there eating his way through supplies of oats, corn, molasses protein supplements and prairire hay shipped from his native Kansas.

But his weight, says Dr. Dale Nelson, university veterinarian, has slipped from 2,000 to about 1,700 pounds.

Dr. Nelson has been the bull's baby-sitter since the animal, valued at $200,000 by its owner, broke its left rear leg Nov. 25 in a fall at the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago.

"We removed the splint about six weeks ago," said Nelson. "But he still shows some lameness and soreness. It may be several more weeks before he recovers fully and can be shipped home. It's taken longer than we thought. But he's eating well and I'm not concerned about his loss in weight."

The bull, with the name of T.N. 9 Duplicate, is owned by Robert Laflin of Olsburg, Kan. Laflin phones every two weeks to check on the animal's condition, Nelson said.

"Our only problem was getting some prairie hay for him," said Nelson. "He didn't like what we grow around here and we had to get some wild hay to supplement the food we give him.

"He eats about 30 pounds of food a day, plus all the hay he wants, and washes it down with 20 gallons of water."

T.N. is kept in a private stall with a special floor that makes it possible for him to get up and down easier.

"He has adjusted to the situation real well," said Nelson.

Feeder Pig Show At West Plains

WEST PLAINS — South Missouri is rapidly becoming known as the feeder pig capital of the United States with the state ranking first in the nation in feeder pig production. In keeping with this coveted position, the second National Feeder Pig Show will be held at West Plains this year on June 1 — 2.

Entry requests have already been received for the 1972 show from producers in 11 states, according to Secretary Cecil Junkins of West Plains -- Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas.

The show will start June 1, reports General Manager Rolland (Pig) Paul, with a pork feast and a program to follow. The master of ceremonies for the event will be Cordell Tindell, editor of the Missouri Ruralist magazine. Participating in a panel that will consider the subject of "Growth and Responsibility of the Feeder Pig Industry," will be Keith E. Myers of Grundy Center, Iowa; Frank Wilson of Arkansas City, Ark.; Dr. E. A. Butler, Iowa Department of Agriculture; and Calvin Harris of Lebanon.

Judges and speakers have been enlisted for the show from nine states: Dr. M. D. Whitaker, University of Kentucky; Dr. H. R. Grummer, University of Wisconsin; Dr. A. D. Fitzgerald, Louisiana State University; Harvey Richardson, Elmore City, Okla.; T. D. Tanksley, Texas A. & M; W. L. (Buddy) Richmond, Mississippi Statee University; John C. Rea, University of Missouri; Ken Anderson, Missouri extension livestock specialist; Gene DeWitt, FFA, Ponca City, Okla.; Professor Paul R. Noland, University of Arkansas; Charles Ausfhal, Missouri Cooperative Livestock Association; A. D. (Pete) Moles, MFA livestock division; and Dick Ireland of Green Hill Auction Services at Trenton, National Feeder Pig Show's champion auctioneer.

Peachy Outlook In Orchards

CAPE GIRARDEAU — With some orchards showing pink, peach growers in the Cape Girardeau area say unless there is a hard freeze a good peach crop can be expected this summer.

There was some loss to buds during the winter, bringing a natural thinning of the fruit, but largely the orchards in this area escaped extensive damage.

A few days of warm weather are expected to bring the peach trees into full bloom.

Hayti Adopts Uniform Codes

HAYTI — The city council has joined four other area cities in accepting a joint municipal agreement for consideration of putting into effect, on a regional basis, a program of adoption and enforcement of uniform codes relating to housing, fire prevention, building, plumbing and electrical construction.

Ron Yersak, planning director of the Bootheel regional Planning Commission, reported that in addition to Hayti, New Madrid, Portageville, Cardwell and East Prairie have accepted the joint municipal agreement for consideration.

These communiites were chosen by the commission because of their completion of a comprehensive plan and certified workable program. Yersak said the Department of Housing and Urban Development requires the completion of these two programs in order to participate in the joint municipal agreement.

The agreement states that the participating communities should agree to establish a joint committee consisting of one representative from each municipality to adopt uniform rules and regulations. These committee members will perform the matters pertaining to the establishment and enforcement of the uniform ordinances.

30-Second Clock Big 8 Experiment

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Big Eight Conference likely will use the 30-second clock in basketball on an experimental basis next season.

Big Eight Commissioner Chuck Neinas says use of the clock is under consideration, and at least two coaches of Big Eight teams are in favor of the proposal.

The coaches are Norm Stewart of Missouri and Joe Cipriano of Nebraska.

Neinas said friday the proposal is in "the talking stage. We have asked the National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada for permission to experiment with the clock for one year."

Neinas said the proposal will be discussed at length at the conference meetings in Boulder, Colo., May 18 and 19, and "if our basketball coaches and athletic directors give their approval, we will seek formal approval of the committee. The committee has indicated already that it will approve."

Stewart told the Mexico, Mo., Ledger that the 30-second clock "would not have much effect on college ball except to reduce stalling at the end of a game. Statistics show now that college teams take much less than 30 seconds to get off a shot. I am in favor of the proposal."

"It will help take the pressure off the officials and all the counting they're involved in," Cipriano said. "It probably will take the same 10 seconds to get the ball across midcourt, though.

"I hope that this proposal will be given the chance it deserves. I think it'll help the whole game."

Neinas said there was nothing magic about 30 seconds and that experimentation might prove 45 seconds or 60 seconds were needed.

Nonconference opponents also would be asked if they wanted to use the clock, Neinas said. The clock would also be utilized in the league's preseason basketball tournament in Kansas City in December.

The proposal would provide that a team would have to take a shot at the basket within 30 seconds after gaining possession or yield the ball to the opposition.

Give some people an inch and you'll have some characters on your hands who want to be rulers.

HONG KONG (AP) — Manila golf pro Ireneo Legaspi shot a hole- in- one Saturday in the third round of the Hong Kong Open — only to be told that he made the ace on the wrong hole and did not qualify for a special prize of $3,000.

Legaspi sank his tee shot on the fourth hole, but tournament officials said the special prize was only for a hole -in - one on the second hole.

QUEBEC (AP) — The Quebec City entry into the World Hockey Association will be called "Les Nordiques," it was announced Wednesday.

The club's directors asked a news conference that the team name Les Nordiques be used in English. A committee formed last March to choose a name for the team had 475 different names suggested to them.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Sherman Chavoor was named 1972 coach of the U.S. Women's Olympic seimming team Friday.

Owners Take Hard-Line Stand

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

"I can't believe it," said Danny Cater, a player with the Boston Red Sox.

"I'm sick," said Stu Holcomb, a vice president with the Chicago White Sox.

The two opposites presented the same pained reaction Friday after the Major League Baseball Players Association announced an intended strike against the owners.

The association announced the strike, starting today in every spring training camp, after reaching an impasse with owners over contract talks. The players want a heftier increase in their pension plan.

"I think the players are damn greedy," said Jim Campbell, the general manger of the Detroit Tigers.

Holcomb said that the White Sox are "closing up."

"There will be no more practice sessions, no games, no ticket sales, no nothing," said Holcomb, bitterly.

Holcomb said his club probably would give White Sox players money to get home, but added: "If I had my way, they wound't get anything."

August A. Busch Jr., of St. Louis, one of the most militant of owners, said "I'll be at the ball park at 8 a.m. Saturday morning and will meet anyone who's there." Busch announced recently that he wouldn't "give a damn cent more to the players."

Charles O. Finley, owner of the Oakland A's who's having his own personal money battle with pitcher Vida Blue, also took a hard-line stand.

"The players have just shot the goose that laid the golden egg," said Finley.

Baseball's hierarchy was distressed.

"Obviously, the losers in the strike action are the sports fans of America," said Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

"I was really disappointed," said Joe Cronin, the president of the American League.

Carl Yastrzemski and Reggie Smith, two veteran outfielders who make big money with Boston, were visibly upset.

So was Ken Tatum, a pitcher with the Red Sox.

"You don't know what to expect without a paycheck coming in and you have a family," he said. "Everybody thinks that all of us make $30,000 to $40,000 a year—and we don't."

Some players felt the strike was a good thing.

"If we aren't serious enough to strike, they can do anything they want to us," said Steve Dunning, the Cleveland pitcher. "If you're going to get anything, you've got to work for it."

The players are asking for a 17 per cent increase in pension benefits from the owners to cover the cost of living over the last three years.

The exhibition schedule went on Friday before, during and after the strike.

Red Bird Players Go Home

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — "I'll be at the ball park at 8 a.m...and will meet anyone who's there," Cardinal owner August A. Busch, Jr., said Friday night.

But some of his players were packing their bags and arranging transportation home, following the announcement of a strike by the Baseball Players Association. The players want more money in their pension fund.

Bob Gibson, Cardinal hurler who earns $150,000 a year, said he was flying home to Omaha. He said of the decision to strike:

"It's obviously something that had to be done. It's unfortunate, but it doesn't alter the facts. If we accepted what they (owners) offered, we wouldn't receive the benefits we've been getting the last few years."

Lou Brock, Cards outfielder whose salary tops $100,000, said he would follow the strike action until the issue is resolved. The players will undoubtedly be hurt more than the owners," Brock said.

The Cardinals had a 1:30 game scheduled today with Cincinnati.

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball announced Wednesday that Braille schedules are available free for blind fans from the Library of Congress.

Requests for such schedules should be sent to the Library of Congress, Division for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Washington, D.C., 20542.

Strike Is On

NEW YORK (AP) — Four days before the scheduled start of the 1972 season, major league baseball players were set to begin an unprecedented strike today over a pension dispute while representatives of both sides were to get together to discuss the situation.

Officially, the strike began at 12:01 a.m. but the first results would not be felt until the players failed to show up for the 12 exhibition games on today's schedule.

Many players and owners alike seemed stunned when the 24 player representatives and their alternates voted 47-0 with one abstention—later identified as Wes Parker of the Los Angeles Dodgers—at a meeting in Dallas,Friday to call a walkout.

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, said the strike would be terminated only "in either of the following circumstances:

"1. If an appropriate settlement is reached with the owners or,

"2. If the owners agree to submit the dispute to binding arbitration by any prominent person not associated with either of the parties."

There didn't seem to be much chance of the latter when Francis Dale, president of the Cincinnati Reds and a member of the owners' Player Relations Committee, said, "We aren't going to turn to some outsider who doesn't know the game."

After the 4½-hour Dallas meeting, Miller headed for New York and a meeting today— time and place still undetermined—with John Gaherin, representing the owners.

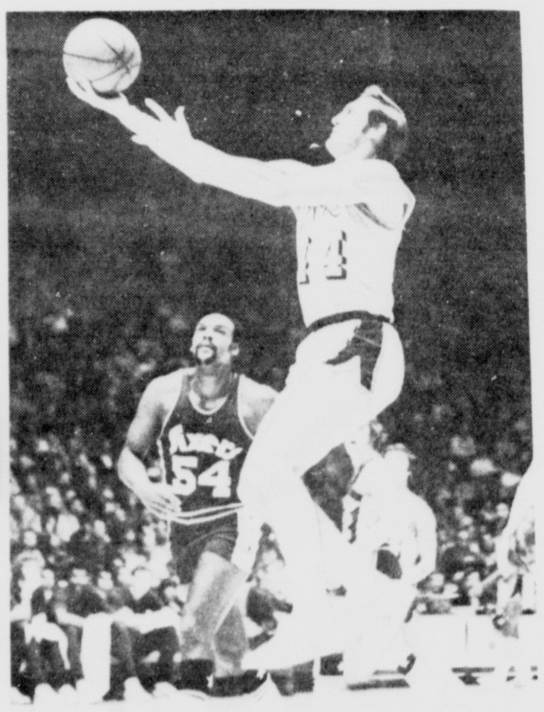
The ,isue centers around the owners' one-and-only offer to increase the health care part of the players' pension package by $400,000.

The players want a 17 per cent increase, which Miller says could be met by an additional contribution from each of the 24 major league teams of less than $11,000. They also want a four-year agreement, but will settle for a one-year pact.

If the strike is not settled by Wednesday, it will mean at the very least a delay in opening the season. Houston is scheduled at Cincinnati in Wednesday's official opener, with 16 more teams slated to get under way Thursday and the rest on Friday.

Like Father, Like Son

The eight-year-old basketball player shooting the layup at left in a Biddy Basketball League game in Santa Monica, Calif., shows good form. But then his name is Mark West and his father, Jerry, has been known to make an occasional basket for the Los Angeles Lakers and shows a remarkably similar good form himself as he drives past Luke Jackson of Philadelphia in a recent National Basketball Association game at right.



Hawks Even Series

"It was just an ordinary Bullets-Knicks game," said Baltimore forward Jack Marin.

Which means that it wasn't ordinary at all.

Baltimore and the New York Knicks engaged in one of their classic National Basketball Association playoff battles Friday night and the Bullets took a close one, 108-105 in overtime.

Marin and Archie Clark sank two free throws apiece in the last 39 seconds to give Baltimore a 1-0 lead in their bestofseven-game series.

"I hope our games aren't all this way," said Marin. "I don't like to work overtime."

In another Eastern Division semifinal series, the Atlanta Hawks whipped the Boston Celtics 113-104 to square their matchup at one game apiece.

The American Basketball Association began its playoffs Friday night with Indiana dropping Denver 102-96 in the Western Division semifinals and Virginia bounced the Floridians in 114-107 in overtime in the East.

NBA playoffs continue today with Milwaukee meeting Golden State in a series that is tied 1-1. In the ABA, it's the Floridians at Virginia and New York at Kentucky in the East Division and Denver vs. Indiana and Dallas against Utah in the West.

A field goal by Bill Bradley with 10 seconds left in regulation time sent the BaltimoreNew York game into the fiveminute extra period.

Then Clark took command, scoring five of his 38 points in overtime. He put the Bullets ahead 106-105 with 39 seconds on two free throws and Marin added the crusher with two more.

Rebounding was the difference in the Atlanta-Boston game. The Hawks had it, the Celtics didn't.

"They beat us on the boards Friday night as badly as we beat them in the first game," said Boston Coach Tom Heinsohn. "Now I'm concerned about the series. I'd be foolish to say I wasn't.

The Hawks, with Walt Bellamy grabbing 18, outrebounded the Celtics 56-40.

"It was a good psychological g me for us," said Atlanta Coach Richie Guerin. "It was the first time we've beaten Boston this year. We knew that we could beat them—but knowing it and doing it are two different things."

Indiana rubbed out a 49-46 halftime deficit with six straight points to start the second half, then held off a furious Denver rally to beat the Rockets.

The score was tied twice in the last four minutes before Freddie Lewis drove in for a layup with 2:01 remaining to put the Pacers ahead to stay, 96-94. Lewis scored 15 points in all, coming off the bench.

Julius Erving scored six points in overtime to spark Virginia over the Floridians.

1—In Memoriam

A poem in loving memory of our dear Dad, Lester Newton who passed away two years ago April 1, 1970.

Rest Dad in the kindly earth
Our love is with thee still
The silver stars that shine above
Are signs of Gods great will
And so it is with that calm rest that comes to everyone
It is a part of Gods own plan as in the setting sun.
And too, the love we have for Thee shall last throughout the years for it's a gift from Christ the son allaying all our tears.

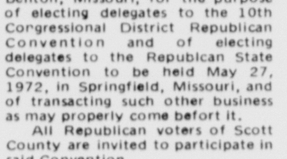
Sadly missed by your granddaughter, Joy Appleton and family.

BARBS

By PHIL PASTORET

We've yet to see a women's liberationist who objects to having the man of the house take out the trash.

The fellow who says it costs nothing to dream obviously hasn't been consulting a shrink lately.



Folks who don't stick to their diets can watch their efforts go to waist.

If the boss is all that dumb, how did he ever manage the spasm of genius that resulted in hiring you?

Knocking on wood may not bring good luck, but it sure beats barking your shins on the corner of a metal desk.

It's getting so you can't tell the visitors from the members of a nudist camp.

If you don't think they play post office any more, you haven't waited for a letter recently.

Q—Which is the strongest of all natural fibers?

A—Silk. A thread of silk is stronger than the same size thread of some kinds of steel.

CORNELIUS

Along the seacoast of Palestine was the port city of Caesarea. During the time of Christ it had become the favorite community of Herod the Great. Here was stationed the prestigeous Italian Cohort, a leading military unit under the command of Cornelius, Roman Centurion and man of God.

The New Testament writers tell us that Cornelius was a devout and faithful believer. Although a Gentile, he had been a keen follower of the Jewish law, studied their prophets, and had given of his means to the poor and helpless. He experienced a vision, in which he was instructed of God to seek out St. Peter—who had, in another town, a simultaneous vision relating to the same theme: That all men could find the Risen Christ and be part of His fellowship.

Peter went to the home of Cornelius following his personal invitation, preached to his household, and baptized the family. For the first time, the followers of Jesus realized that one did not have to become a Jew to qualify for Christian baptism. Cornelius was Peter's first Gentile convert and probably the most important personality to aid the young Church. His influence and stature, his humility and devotion remain as an example to the entire Christian enterprise.

What's The Law

Even Gambler Can Become Bankrupt

By Jack Strauss, LL.B.

Freddy had the forlorned look of a crap shooter who could throw nothing but "boxcars." After years of high living, and spending money like water, he suddenly found that he couldn't liquidate his debts. And, with creditors all but popping out of the woodwork, he finally consulted an attorney and filed a petition in bankruptcy to cancel out his debts. In doing so, he listed a few pairs of holely socks as his sole assets and "salesman" as his occupation.

"That's a lot of baloney," protested several of Freddy's creditors who opposed the bankruptcy. "If Freddy was a salesman, it couldn't have been more than a hobby of his since his main activity was gambling. In fact, he spent more time at the track than the horses and anyone who would do that shouldn't be allowed to cop out in bankruptcy."

"Certainly I bet on the nags," was Freddy's answer, "but so what? Doesn't everybody? The trouble is that if a rich guy bets on the horses, he's a sport. If a poor man does, he's a bum. Certainly, that kind of double standard shouldn't prevent me from going into bankruptcy."

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you permit horsey Freddy to erase his debts in bankruptcy?

This is how the judge ruled: YES! The judge held that even if a person's chief occupation is gambling, that, in and of itself, would not bar his discharge in bankruptcy. (Based upon a 1962 United States Court of Appeals Decision)

People who play on your sympathies usually come up with the same, old tune.

$1,500 For Storm Alarms Being Sought

CHARLESTON — The Civil Defense in cooperation with other authorities has announced the organization of a storm warning system to be used in the event that severe thunderstorms or tornadoes strike the local area.

The plan calls for spotters to be posed at designated areas surrounding the city, and storm information will be forwarded to the control center located in the police department dispatch room.

When a tornado is reported moving in the direction of the city, a warning will be sounded using the electronic sirens on the police and fire department vehicles. This warning will be sounded throughout the city.

The "Wail Tone" will be used exclusively for storm warning. To acquaint the local citizens of this sound a practice warning will be scheduled in the near future. Time and date of this practice exercise will be announced at a later date.

The use of these electronic sirens on the emergency vehicles will be used until funds can be collected to purchase a storm warning system to be installed throughout the city of Charleston. A fund raising program to obtain funds for this warning system is being headed by Bill Lurk, Safety Officer for Brown Shoe Co. A goal of $1,500 has been set for this drive. Donations for this system may be sent to either Mr. Lurk at the Brown Shoe Co., Joe Johnson, Chief of the Charleston Fire Dept. or may be mailed to the Miss. Co. Civil Defense, P. O. Box 341, Charleston.

Local civic clubs are being contacted to help explain the organization and operation of the Storm Warning System. For information contact Ralph Carr Jr., Joe Johnson, Mike Bryant or Bill Lurk.

Today In U.S. History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Saturday, April 1, the 92nd day of 1972. There are 274 days left in the year. This is April Fools' Day.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1939, Generalissimo Francisco Franco announced that the Spanish Civil war was over, and the U.S. recognized his government.

On this date—

In 1578, the English physician and anatomist who discovered and explained the circulation of blood, William Harvey, was born.

In 1789, the U.S. House of Representatives held its first full meeting, convening in New York City.

In 1918, the Royal Air Force was organized in Britain.

In 1945, in the Pacific war, U.S. naval armada of more than 1,400 ships began the invasion of Okinawa.

In 1946, the United States told Cuba it would give up bases held on the island during World War II.

Five years ago: Vice President Hubert Humphrey and Pope Paul VI discussed Vietnam and other world problems at a Vatican meeting.

One year ago: President Nixon ordered Army Lt. William L. Calley Jr. released from the stockade at Fort Benning, Ga., and confined to officers' quarters pending appeal of Calley's conviction of murder in the My Lai slayings.

Thought for today: Faith is the substance of hings hoped for, the evidence of things unseen—The Bible.

Faubus Urges Support For Busing Moratorium

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Former Gov. Orval Faubus has sent a letter to the members of Arkansas' Congressional delegation urging them to support President Nixon's proposals to declare a moratorium on busing of students to achieve racial balance.

Faubus also said that busing should be "rolled back" in areas where it has been ordered and implemented.

"To suggest, demand or order that a member of any race or group must be compelled to sit beside a member of any other race or group in order to improve himself or his education, is an insult to any self-respecting member of any race or group," Faubus said in the letter.

Faubus, whoserved six terms as governor before retiring in 1966, said that what is needed is "quality education for all in neighborhood schools." Faubus unsuccessfully sought the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1970.

"Hauling children from their homes to distant schools away from their own neighborhood schools, passing each other on the roads, is a ridiculous, unnecessary burden on students, parents and school authorities," he said. "The funds for the burdensome expense of this unnecessary activity, could better be applied in the home area schools, and to raise teacher salaries of all groups in all areas."

Faubus said Nixon's proposals need to be approved "and even more done, to restore some semblance of order and harmony in the areas affected by busing, and to save quality education in the public schools of America."

Dear Editor:

UNGRATEFUL NATION

The Vietnam soldiers have served an ungrateful Nation well. Their conduct, even though they were subjected to battlefield conditions, was equal to their peers at home whose greatest discomfort was adjusting a thermostat up or down to get the desired temperature. Let their be no mistake about it, some of the greatest heroes the world has ever produced returned from Vietnam un- noticed, some could walk, some were on stretchers and some were in G.I. boxes; but the proud American people never missed an "X" rated movie, a ball game, a golf game or one (1) party.

The majority of their generation, including their commander in Chief's two (2) son-in-law's, escapedVietnam legally and many who couldn't, fled to Canada. Those privileged people called the "jet set" just kept jetting from one fun spot to another. Some of their commanders were profiteering Generals, some Sargents were skimming P.X. dollars while other officers were dealing with greedy selfish American businessmen to extract every possible blood stained dollar from these fighting men.

Their Commander in Chief was busy massing a personal fortune, acquiring many mansions, granting special favors to his campaign contributors and was an expert at changing his coats to suit the voters whims. A large percentage of the nation was following the President's frantic pace by grabbing every buck they could get their hands on and the American leaches (Better known as the wealthy who pay no taxes) just kept sucking the blood from those who do pay taxes.

While this was going on, the dependents of these fighting men were living in dire poverty on their shamefully small allotments. Now their Commander in Chief has offered North Vietnam (The killers of over 45,000 American Soldiers) 2-1/2 billion dollars but not one extra dollar to the orphans or widows of these gallant men who died in vain. The President calls it a generous peace offer but if we still have enough guts left to face reality all we have to do is probe a little deeper and this is what we find:

1. That generous peace offer would be paying the enemy over $50,000 for each American Soldier they have killed.

2.Our President treats the Viet Cong, who killed our Soldiers, better than he treats the Soldiers orphan children and widows.

3. Our President wants to make these widows and orphans pay the very enemy that killed their husbands and fathers by taking the survivors taxes and sending it to the cut throat communists. Would this be aiding and abetting the enemy?

This has to be the dawn of a new era, a turning point in our time, a complete departure from basic rights and wrongs, decency and fair play established over the thousands of years of mans existence.

Are there any readers of this paper that agrees with our President on this issue? If so, send a letter to the Editor explaining why and be sure to sign your name to it.

Failure To Report Prostitute Income Draws $750 Fine

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A federal judge has fined Mrs. Doris F. McCoy, 34, $750 and placed her on probation three years for failing to report nearly $20,000 income she said she earned as a prostitute in 1968.

A jury convicted her March 22 in U.S. District Court.

Mrs. McCoy, who told the court Thursday she preferred to be called an entertainer rather than a prostitute, had expressed intention to continue the work.

Volpe Urges Airport Truce In 60 Days

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Transportation Secretary John Volpe has sent copies of a letter to St. Louis area government and civic leaders, urging them to get together on a site for a second major airport.

Volpe said that in 60 days, if no agreement is reached, the government will go ahead and consider an application that has been filed for an Illinois airport site. No plan has been filed for a Missouri site.

St. Louis Mayor A.J. Cervantes said Thursday he thinks this is a good approach. He favors the site near Waterloo, Ill., and supports a plan for the city and state of Illinois to build and operate a $350 million airport.

But Lawrence K. Roos, supervisor of St. Louis County, said although he is willing to discuss the matter with federal officials, he hopes they don't try to jam the Illinois site "down the throats of citizens."

Roos said he would never give his blessing to a site that is opposed by the majority of airport users. He has said most of the users live in St. Louis County.

New Computer Tool To Aid Water Board

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — The Missouri Water Pollution Board has a new computer tool to help its water quality planning for a better environment.

It's called a STORET computer terminal for "storage and retrieval." The terminal is on loan now from the Environmental Protection Agency but may be rented later.

With it, the board can ask the computer data bank a question about water quality at any point in any area of the United States and get a quick answer — either raw data or a statistical analysis.

Missouri also can feed information from this state into the data bank on water quality, compliance, waste discharges and treatment facilities, fish kills and so on.

Participating in the new program are 30 other state water pollution and health agencies, the Environmental Protection Agency, U. S. Geological Survey and other state and federal agencies.

Field engineer Greg Mattli said the new terminal "will provide an invaluable tool for the water pollution board, particularly in basin planning."

Fire Razes Grain Elevator

FRISBEE — A grain elevator housing approximately a half- million pounds of milo and a tractor were destroyed by fire of undetermined origin in the predawn hours, Friday.

Firemen from Kennett and Holcomb responded to the alarm at 4:45 a.m. today when the blaze at the Frisbee Gin Company was detected.

The gin owner, Don James, had no immediate estimate on the loss, according to Kennett firemen. The fire fighters and trucks remained on the scene until after 7 a.m. Friday before bringing the blaze under control.

Upon arriving, firemen said the elevator was almost consumed by flames and was about to collapse. Efforts were concentrated on saving the surrounding buildings, including the gin and the grain dryer, which proved successful.

"We are such stuff as dreams are made on..."

W. Shakespeare

Life would be pretty dull if people couldn't dream. Take that boat you're always dreaming about. Just thinking about it makes you feel pretty good. But you won't just have to dream if you buy U.S. Savings Bonds. Because Bonds can make your dream boat a reality.

Now Bonds mature in less than six years. Which means maybe it won't take forever for your ship to come in.

Just knowing you've got the safety and security of U.S. Savings Bonds working for you can make dreaming for anything a lot more fun. Because, with Bonds, the good times and the good things can really happen.

So, don't give up dreaming. Just keep buying U.S. Savings Bonds—they're the stuff dreams are made of.

Now E Bonds pay 5% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months. If they're lost, stolen or destroyed, they can be replaced at your bank. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

What You Want To Know

Q. - I would like to know if "Peyton Place" is really coming back to TV with new stories. I used to really eat this stuff up when it was on during the latter part of the '60s. If the show is to be revived, will some of the original stars be playing their same roles? I don't think Ryan O'Neal and Mia Farrow will be in the cast, but it would be nice to see them together again. — Mrs. E. D., Drexel, N. C.

A. - NBC has announced that it will premiere a new daytime series titled "Return to Peyton Place," which will be based on the characters and story of "Peyton Place," the novel, film and poplar TV series. Although efforts will be made to have some of the stars from the original TV series repeat their roles, Miss Farrow and Mr. O'Neal will not be among them. The date set for the first telecast is Monday, April 3.

Q. - Is the actor who plays Doug Williams in "Days of Our Lives" the same performer who used to sing with a girl vocalist on the old Sid Caesar - Imogene Coca Tv show, "Your Show of Show"? He looks just like the same performer, only older, of course. — N.B., Last Vegas, Nv.

A. - Bill Hayes, who plays Doug Williams in "Days of Our Lives," was the featured male vocalist, along with Judy Johnson, on the old "Your Show of Shows" series.

"CAPTAIN KANGAROO"

AN ALL TIME CHILDRENS' FAVORITE

Pictured are nine of the featured characters that will appear in a series of 50 filmed segments on health, nutrition and growing up – prepared under the auspices of the U,S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare -- to be presented Monday through Friday on "Captain Kangaroo" for 10 consecutive weeks beginning Monday, April 3 (7:00-8:00 AM,) on the CBS Television Network.

What You Want To Know

Q. I am a fan of "Longstreet" and I have just a few questions about the show, since I missed seeing the two-hour movie which introduced the main characters and the idea of the series. First, did we ever see Longstreet sighted and did his wife appear in the first show? Also, how was he blinded and what became of his wife? - Y.V., Tampa, Fla.

A. In the pilot film which introduced the character of Mike Longstreet, James Franciscus was sighted and happily married to a beautiful lady for a few brief minutes at the beginning. Then an explosion, meant only for Longstreet, killed his wife and blinded him. And that's how the originators set the stage for the series.

Q. Is Lana Wood going to star in a TV series with Steve McQueen? My girl friend says she read this somewhere, but I figured to go right to your column, because you always have the latest news. M.R., Ypsilanti, Mich.

A. First and foremost, Steve McQueen is not slated to star in any TV series, with or without Miss Wood. And Lana Wood has not been signed for any TV series work. She scored with fans as Plenty O'Toole in "Diamonds Are Forever."

Q. Lee Majors is the sexiest guy in Hollywood, if you ask me, and I'd be on the next plane to Tinsel City if I thought I had a chance. Unfortunately, my husband and two kids would miss me. Is Major going to play in any movies? Mrs. T.O., Sacramento, Calif.

A. Lee Majors is not set to play in any films, but he will continue in "Owen Marshall," as well as making occasional guest shots on other series.
